ATTEMPTED HOLD UP.

Bandits Stop a Train in a Lonely Place.

The Passengers Awakened by the Unusual Proceedings and Frighten the Robbers Away.

HUNTINGTON DEPOT, W. Va, June 12—Forty miles east of Charleston, at Cottonhill, on the Chesapeake and Ohio road, masked men attempted to hold up the Washington and Cincinnati express train last midnight. They boarded the train at Thurmond and crawled over the tender of the engine into the cab, with revolvers drawn. The engineer stopped the train and he was commanded to cut loose the express car. This was done, but by this time all the passengers were awakened and the lights were extinguished. After ten minutes' work the bandits became frightened and escaped to the mountains.

PUGILISTIC EVENT.

All Eyes Now Turned Towards San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12—Since the announcement that Corbett and Sharkey have been matched to fight, that city has been the mecca toward which the eyes of all pugilists are turned. The fistic experts are hastening to San Francisco from all parts of the country in expectation of a revival of the glorious times when there were several prize fights a week here. There is a state law prohibiting prize fights, but a complacent board of supervisors has allowed contests for a limited number of rounds, under the guise of charity entertainments. Numerous fights have been pulled off during the past four months under this arrangement, but now the civic federation has discovered that prize fihts are against the law and its members will endeavor to prevent the Sharkey-Corbett affair.

ALEXANDER JOHNSON.

The Terre Haute Gazette Pays Him a Compliment.

In its issue of yesterday the Terre Haute Gazette has the following to say editorially of Mr. Alexander Johnson, of this city:

"The election of Alexander Johnson to the presidency of the National Association of Charities and Corrections by the annual conference that has been in session at Grand Rapids, Mich., for the past week, and which adjourned today, is a high honor and it has been worthily bestowed. Mr. Johnson is now the superintendent of the Indiana Institute for the Feeble Minded at Fort Wayne. It is regarded as one of the model institutions of the kind in the world. Previous to his election to the superintendency of the institute at Fort Wayne and for several years he was secretary of the Indiana Board of State Charities, in which position he was a co worker with the late Oscar B. McCulloch. Mr. Johnson's selection to the presidency of the national association is a compliment worthily bestowed on a man whose identification with all the things the association stands for has been intimate and helpful."

WAR ON SALOONS.

Whisky Sellers at Ellis, Kan., are Consigned to the Cooler.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 12.—The woman city government at Ellis is at war with illegal liquor venders, and all but two violators have been prosecuted and languish in jail. At the recent election the women promised, if given control of the city, to drive out gamblers and "jointists." They have made good the pledge. The county attorney is being prosecuted on the charge of accepting money from a jointist.

The Stull & Miller dog and pony show, which is exhibiting on the lot on South Calhoun street, near Hamilton street, is one of the best entertainments of that class that has ever been seen in Fort Wayne. The show is giving the very best of satisfaction to the large crowds which are attending. Each and every act deserves special mention, but it would require too much space. Among them is a grand entry of ten trained ponies, who perform the most wonderful tricks. There is a pony drill and other things. One pony tells his age and answers questions; others do a teeter act, etc. The dogs form a great feature. The children are invited to ride the ponies after each performance. The price of admission is low, being ten and twenty cents.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE

Discussing the Platform and the Contests.

It Must be Definitely Either Gold or Silver, Each to Take the Chances on the Ballot.

ST. LOUIS MO., June 12—Today the national committee spent the time in the discussion of the platform and the hearing of contests. Most of the McKinley men were seated.

The concensus of opinion is that the platform must be definitely either for gold or silver, each side to take its chances in the balloting.

This would leave the central states to settle the platform question.

POLES CUT DOWN.

Vigorous Measures Adopted at Logansport

By the City Council to Get Rid of the Jenney Company Opposition.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 12—A force of men under the direction of the electric light committee of the common council was set at work yesterday afternoon tearing down the wires and cutting down the line poles of the Jenny Electric Light company, as per a recent order of the council. Since the city has erected and put in operation an electric lighting plant of its own the lines of the Jenny company have been a hinderance, and the competition has caused the city plant to be operated at a very small profit in furnishing private consumers. The Jenny company has operated here since 1888 without a franchise, and it is by the advice of the city attorney that the lines and poles are being torn down.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED

At the Session of the Northern Indiana Editorial Association.

At the last session of the Northern Indiana Editorial association a committee on resolutions, consisting of Editors Kent, Louthain and McDonald, reported the following resolutions, which were adopted:

The members of the Northern Indiana Editorial association desire to make formal expression of their appreciation of all the courtesies and kindnesses shown them during the sessions of the twenty-seventh annual meeting, held at Fort Wayne June 10 and 11, 1896.

We acknowledge that every effort possible has been made by the local members of the association and the citizens of Fort Wayne to make our visit pleasant and agreeable from the time of arrival to the minute of departure.

We express special gratification for the treatment accorded us by the Consolidated Street Railway company in showing to our astonished eyes the countless attractions of Fort Wayne and its surroundings; to Charles D. Tillo and the Chicago Newspaper Union for their novel and interesting methods of entertainment; to Miss Leo Long and the Haydn quartet for sweet and artistic music; to the gentlemen who so acceptably performed their respective parts in the entertainment at the opera house; to the street railway company and the management of the institute for feeble minded the opportunity afforded of visiting and inspecting one of our most worthy charitable institutions and the new and beautiful park; to the band for music.

These are but feeble expressions of our grateful recognition of the efforts put forth to make our stay in Fort Wayne pleasant and profitable.

An elegant lunch was served in the main building at the park by order of the street car company. After which the association adjourned, the members carrying with them to their homes only the most pleasant recollections of the hospitalities rendered them in this city. The question of place and date of the next meeting was left to the executive committee.

It is not out of place here to say that the newspaper men of the city appreciate very highly the generosity and heartiness with which the Chicago Newspaper Union, through their efficient manager, C. D. Tillo, the Fort Wayne club, by the generous offer of the use of their elegant rooms, and last but not least, the Consolidated Street railway, by their manifold courtesies, contributed in such an important degree to the success of this twenty-seventh annual meeting of the Northern Indiana Editorial association.

The following members were elected an executive committee: W. D. Page, F. W. Willis and Ed. Jurnegan.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

A. D. Craig Elected District Superintendent.

The state Sunday school convention, which has been in session this week at Crawfordsville, has been by far one of the best ever held in the state. A. D. Craig, one of the enthusiastic Sunday school workers of this county, was elected superintendent of the twenty-fourth district, which comprises the counties of Allen, Adams, Huntington and Wells. Allen county carried off the laurels and made the best rating of any county in the state, having organized twenty-one new Sunday schools during the year.

STATE NEWS.

A petition is circulating at Vincennes, praying that one of the new government gunboats, now in process of construction, be named in honor of that city. The fact is recalled that the city of Vincennes has sent to the United States navy nine commissioned officers, of whom four are still serving, and that in 1826 the sloop-of-war Vincennes was one of the crack vessels of the navy, carrying eighteen guns and making many famous cruises.

CLASS OF '96.

Commencement Exercises Held Last Night.

Twenty-nine Graduates Receive Their Diplomas.

Eloquent Address by Rev. Geo. S. Burroughs, President of Wabash College.

One of the largest audiences that ever attended the annual commencement exercises of the Fort Wayne high school was the one which was present at the Masonic Temple last night to witness the graduating of the class of '96. Every seat was taken and every available inch of standing room was occupied. In addition to this hundreds who came late were turned away being unable to gain entrance to the big building.

The class of '96 was composed of the following graduates in the various courses:

CLASSICAL COURSE.

Harvey Shaubert Banks, Lillias Marion Hays, Thomas Johnson Davis, Mary Janet Kern, Claire Pearl Foster, Lucille Ann Porter, Arthur Anthony Greenick, Harry Lingo Stonecifer, Winifred Evelyn Hartman, Rebecca Cornelia Swayne, Lillie Belle Wilding.

LATIN COURSE.

Aurillia Ann Aker, Donald John Hayden, Maude Alice Gaskins, Agnes Emily Lansdown, Augusta Anna Haberkorn, Georgene Markey, Emma Mary Haberkorn, Frederick Calvin McCracken.

Scientific Course—Carrie Isabel Akers, Hugh Brenton Hatch, Mabel Althea Hatch, Grace Agnes Hauck, Elizabeth Jane Hebert, Beatrice Kell, Ada Mary McCormick, Mary Maud VanTilburg, Aibert Lewis Waters, Jennie Gibson You.

The graduates were seated on either side of the stage, the center of the stage being vacant. In a long row at the rear of the class were the members of the school board, the superintendent and teachers of the high school, Rev. J. L. Leeper and Rev. George S. Burroughs, president of Wabash college, who was to deliver the address of the evening. Altogether the stage setting was the prettiest and best arranged of any that has ever been made on such an occasion.

The girl graduates were lovely in white. Each one carried a beautiful bouquet of choice flowers.

The exercises opened with an overture by Reineke's full orchestra. This was followed by prayer by Rev. James L. Leeper, of the Westminster Presbyterian church. The prayer was earnest and eloquent in word and thought.

After another selection by the orchestra Hugh B. Hatch, the salutatorian, delivered his address. On behalf of the class he thanked the large audience for their presence. He said it plainly showed that the people were interested in the class, and they could best show that interest by attending the commencement exercises when the members of the class bid farewell to high school life. This interest was but a continuance of that shown in the past. The interest that has been displayed in the past is the kind that comes through kindness, but the interest that will be shown in the future will be the kind that is given only for value received. Our school life has been pleasant and fruitful, and we, as a class, hope to merit the interest of our friends in the future. As our class motto says: "They are never alone that are accompanied with noble thoughts."

Not only must we think well, but we must do well. We must fit ourselves for the practical side of life as well as for the theoretical. Our school holds a high, exalted position among the schools of the land and fits us for the practical work. Our school education furnishes us with every advantage for doing this. Many men we see wrestling with great questions who have not had the opportunity to acquire the necessary education which would enable them to solve them. It is true that the solution of all the great questions of the day depends on the education which is received in the public schools. Political questions, social questions and mechanical questions are alike in this regard. Schools are but nurseries for maturing thoughts. But all final education does not come from the high schools. This is the beginning, but after it has been received we must apply ourselves to the practical use of the education we have acquired. A glance at our great American inventors, Fulton, Morse and Edison, proves this.

Mr. Hatch's oration was received with a hearty round of applause. The orchestra played Waldteufel's waltz Militaer and then Dr. Irwin introduced Rev. Burroughs, who delivered the address of the evening on the subject "Finding Oneself Through Education."

The question "What For?' is an American question, said Rev. Burroughs. The American always is asking it. And all over the world an American is a Yankee. He wants to know the reason for everything He wants to find himself through education. And as it is the question of the nineteenth century, so it will be the the question of the twentieth century. Everything must stand its test. The reason for all things must be ascertained and it must come out because the American will force it to show itself. Education also must give an account of herself. There cannot be so strong a distinction between the education of culture and the education of utility. Culture and utility belong together. They should go hand in hand. The old education is not distinct from the new, but a distinction can be drawn between the true education and the false education. Men must find themselves. They must find their places through educating themselves and then occupy those places. When Socrates, that great Athenian, went into Athens to find men and teach them to find themselves he struck the keynote. I remember one of those schools of finish which flourished with others of the same kind on the Hudson some years ago. It was a place where young ladies were taken in hand by teachers and instructed in how to appear well in society. A beautiful and wealthy girl from New York was sent there. After receiving her instructions examination day came. She failed. Word was at once sent to her millionaire father that his daughter had failed. He could not understand it. "Why has she failed?" furiously inquired the millionaire. "Because," replied the teacher, "she lacks capacity." "Capacity," he exclaimed, "Why, buy capacity at any price, and I will draw my check for the amount." Ah, buy capacity! What a fallacious thought. Capacity cannot be purchased. Capacity must not be as a cistern which can be enlarged as it is filled. Rather it must be as the spring from which flow the potencies of natural ability. To comprehend education the scholar must see the inner soul of the teacher.

Fundamental in education is nature study. Science is the uncovering of the great facts of life as revealed in the universe. The laws of nature are but methods of life; force and energy are but expressions of will. On every side, in the nature of things, is found intelligent guiding power. Man is developed most truly as he puts himself in harmony with his environment. His culture consists in the adaptation of his experiences to the forces of life round about him. In other words, he finds himself in large degree through finding his relation to his physical environment. The great progress of modern civilization, the marvelous development of our present industries and the possibility of still greater advances on the part of physical science in the decades just before us, rest back upon this great principle. We educate truly when we bring the growing mind into conscious harmony with nature round about.

History discloses the finding of itself on the part of the human race as it comes more and more consciously into possession of its powers in relation to surrounding nature. The study of history is not simply the mastering of facts, much less of barren dates. The true and philosophical conception of history is that it consists in a chain of cause and effect, moving on as the race discovers its possibilities and its larger opportunities. The genius of each race, and of each nation, is to be found in its consciousness of its mission to its day and its environment. In other words, man finds himself in the national life, and each individual is to find his place in relation to this national life. The education of today is, therefore, pre-eminently emphasizing the development of judgment, reason and powers of self control through such a conception of history study in relation to the development of man in historical circumstances.

Perhaps the crowning feature of an educational system is its mystery of life as it discovers itself in literature. Literature is the mirror of life. The manifold experience of all lands and of all ages has been crystalized, conserved and handed down through letters.

We may say that the best of the human race have found themselves in those high and noble utterances which we characterize collectively as literature. More and more, back of the book we are seeing the man, the man who has pre-eminently realized self, he who finds in self the mirror of the external world and in his mental possessions a heritage of all the history of the past. Science, history, literature, the study of these, gathered together comprehensively, is the finding of itself on the part of humanity. The true education, through the use of these studies, brings to the birth personal character, develops individual traits and fits for noble personal service, those who receive the blessings of our inestimable public system of education. American citizenship is the fruitage of the American school system, and American character is the outcome of the true educational spirit.

The audience fully appreciated the great effort of Rev. Burroughs to set forth the true meaning of education, and the applause which followed the closing of his address was significant.

The valedictorian was Harvey S. Banks. In well chosen words he pictured the regret of the class at parting from high school life. There is, he said, always a feeling of sorrow at such a parting, yet it is accompanied by another feeling of joy. The associations which have been so pleasant for years past are to be broken so far as school is concerned, yet the members of the class hope that tonight is the beginning of bright careers. And it is with a feeling of joy that we see this large audience before us, composed of people who have patiently and anxiously awaited this triumphant moment of our high school life We realize

THE man on whom this nation great a long, admiring look will turn, is he who truthfully can state "I made that motion to adjourn."

FORT WAYNE is proud of her public schools and she is proud of its graduates, many of whom are now prominent in the different callings of life.

DO NOT talk about taking the veto power away from the president as long as it is as wisely exercised as it is, during periods when such a congress as that which has just adjourned is the source of legislation.

IT is quite an honor to Mr. Alexander Johnson, of this city, to receive the presidency of the National Association of Charities, to which office he was elected at the meeting just held at Grand Rapids, Mich.

THE Indianapolis News says that the Indiana Germans may redeem the state to sound money. "Even admitting that Indiana is for free silver now," says the News, "It does not at all follow that it will be for free silver when election day rolls around. In that educational work the Germans will bear a large part. They are very much in earnest in their opposition to free silver, and they are mostly men of intelligence and influence."

THE failure of General Weyler in Cuba has been more complete than the failure of General Campos, and has been more humiliating to Spain. He has not only failed to put down the insurrection, but he has failed to maintain decent order and discipline among his troops, and he has failed in his efforts to prevent any knowledge of the atrocities committed by them from being known and published to the world. But it is to be presumed that Weyler will be retained, and that he will continue to permit his officers to murder unoffending citizens for showing lack of enthusiasm, so long as no protest comes from the government of the United States.

THE MILLIONAIRES

Went Down Just Like Poor People.

The Colts Win From Washington by a Score of 17 to 8—Captain Tebeau's Explanation.

	Played.	Won.	Lost.	Per ct.
Fort Wayne	33	26	7	.788
Wheeling	31	18	13	.581
New Castle	33	18	15	.545

Washington	32	13	19	.406
Saginaw	33	12	21	.364
Youngstown	31	9	22	.290

Yesterday's game at Lakeside was simply an alleged game of base ball. McKeown and his team of millionaires from Washington, Pa., made their initial bow in this city and swallowed a bitter pill of defeat. A young man named McCleary tried to pitch for the millionaires and he stood the racket for two innings and he was then relieved by another young man named Martin. Neither one could throw a ball hard enough to knock a mosquito off a bat and of course the Colts didn't do a thing to them. Knell pitched for Fort Wayne and of course this meant that Fort Wayne would win.

Mitchell, the big catcher for the Washington team, is the happiest man that ever trod the diamond, and his little sallies of fun were highly enjoyed by the crowd. Mitchell is a good ball player and understands his business. What the Washington's lack is team work.

The score by innings was as follows:

	R	H	E.
Fort Wayne..0 2 5 2 4 1 4 0 1–17	18	2
Washington .0 0 0 0 0 0 1 2 5– 8	13	5

Earned runs—Fort Wayne, 4; Washington, 6. Two base hits—Grey, King, 2; O'Mears, Mitchell. Three base hits—Tebeau, 2; Cargo. Passed ball—Mitchell. First base on balls—By Knell, 2; by McCleary, 6; by Martin, 2. Hit by pitcher—Lynch, Rhinehart. Struck out—By Knell, 6; by McCleary, 1. Double plays—Kuhn and Bates; Dougheny, Kuhn and Bates. Umpire—Andrews. Time—2:15.

CAPTAIN TEBEAU'S EXPLANATION.

Last night Captain Tebeau, of the Fort Wayne team, said to a SENTINEL reporter: "The people of Fort Wayne do not seem to understand my actions on the ball field. They have received the impression that every time I say a word on the field I am kicking. This is not the case. I never make a kick unless I have a good kick coming. Many a time I go up and say a thing to the umpire or to one of the players or to the pitcher, but I am not kicking. There are times when a pitcher gets rattled, especially young pitchers, and then they go all to pieces. Whenever I see that our pitcher is becoming excited and likely to go to pieces, I always take a little time and go up and say a few words of encouragement to him, or else I talk to the umpire or somebody else in order to give the pitcher a chance to get his nerve and settle down. I never roast a pitcher nor kick to him. I know better than to do this, but I often manage to kill a little time in some way so he can get over his rattles. If I did not do this we would lose two thirds of our games. Our team just now has a winning streak and we want to make the best of it, for we are liable at any time to have our luck changed and lose fifteen out of twenty games. We can't tell when this will happen. Now, my throwing that ball over the fence in the Youngstown game the other day was done simply as a joke. It was done in a spirit of mischief. Hazen had been kidding us and guying us from the bench and I threw the ball over just in order to get him to make a little kick for fun. I had no idea that it would go so far. The umpire had another old ball which I offered to let them use, and it was worse than the one I threw away. I know such a thing is not in base ball, and if I had had any idea that it would have been carried so far I would not have done it. The people have the wrong idea of me, and I would like for them to watch and they will see that I do not kick half so much as they think I do."

JACKSON, 17; NEW CASTLE 13.

JACKSON, Mich, June 11.—No such batting as today was ever seen on the grounds. Besides the thirty-five hits there were nineteen chances in the outfield. Jackson had three double plays. Score:

NOTES OF THE GAME.

The Colts went to Defiance today to play an exhibition game. They were determined to win today and get revenge for the game they lost at Defiance some time ago. Captain Tebeau will pitch for the Colts. He can do it.

Criger caught his old-time game yesterday and his throwing to bases was a revelation to the Millionaires.

Tebeau made two three-base hits and a home run yesterday.

Carrick was called home yesterday by the serious illness of his mother, who is said to be lying at the point of death. This leaves the team with only two pitchers, but Manager Meyer has sent for Powell, the crack pitcher of the Chicago Maroons, who will arrive today and be given a trial. Powell is a good man and a good hitter.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

MUST PAY FOR ROADS.

Gravel Road Law Taxing Cities Held Valid.

The supreme court, Tuesday, rendered a decision upholding the law which permits the taxation of city property for the maintenance of gravel roads. This law has caused a vast amount of complaint in the cities and towns throughout the state where property has been taken to keep up country roads. The case decided Tuesday was one appealed to the supreme court by N. S. Byram, of Indianapolis. Mr. Byram had petitioned the county commissioners to refund the proportion of his taxes that had gone into the gravel road funds. The county commissioners refused and Mr. Byram brought suit in the circuit court to recover the amount. The circuit court sustained the law and found for the defendants, and Mr. Byram appealed to the supreme court, which sustained the lower court.

CLASS OF '96.

that our work has been successful and that under the careful guidance of our teachers we have well begun our education. We have learned the truth of the well known saying of Confucius that "Learning undigested by thought is labor lost; thought unassisted by learning is perilous." A young man may spend years in a medical college and be able to name the symptoms of every disease known to medicine, yet be unfit to take charge of a simple case of measles At the end of school life he has failed to acquire the habit of thinking. Let us hope that the class of '96, which has started out so well, will not lose their thinking ability. Mr. Banks paid a high compliment to the teachers, the superintendent and the members of the school board.

Mr. O. P. Morgan, whose term of office as school trustee expired last night, delivered a short address reviewing the history of the public schools of Fort Wayne since their foundation. Among other things, Mr. Morgan said:

In 1853, when our city numbered about 5,000 inhabitants, the public schools were opened in two small frame buildings, one on the corner of Wayne and Griffith streets, taught by Mr. and Mrs. Hulbert, and the other on Lafayette street, between Berry and Wayne streets, known as the McJunkin school house, and taught by Mr. Isaac Mahurin and his sister.

The first school house erected was the one known as the Clay school building (which was burned some two or three years ago), and the second, the Jefferson building. Other school houses have been erected as necessity has demanded, until now we have between 5,000 and 6,000 pupils and 131 teachers.

In 1865 the first class was graduated, consisting of four young ladies, two of whom are now teaching in the city. Your honored superintendent and myself were members of the school board at that time and our names have been attached to every diploma issued bo the board since then except two years, when I occupied a position as city councilman.

From 1865 to and including the present year there have been graduated from the high school 385 young women and 132 young men; seventeen of whom took the post graduate course, seventy the full classical, including Greek, 216 the Latin and 213 the scientific course. In addition to these 174 young women graduated from the training school.

The management of the funds belonging to the schools, I believe has been commendably judicious. We have fourteen buildings, which, with the grounds and furniture, are estimated to be worth $350,000, and not a dollar of debt; and have in course of construction the beautiful Lakeside school house to cost, when completed and furnished, $20,000, and a very handsome four room building to be built this fall in South Wayne to cost about $14,000 when completed and furnished. The money is on hand to pay every dollar.

After Mr. Morgan presented the diplomas to the class Rev. Leeper pronounced the benediction, the audience sang the doxology and the exercises were finished.

Following the commencement a reception and banquet was held at the Wayne club.

DEATH OF AN ENGINEER

Nathaniel L. Chapman Suddenly Stricken Down.

Civil Engineer Lincoln Resigns--F. J. Boerger's Funeral--Pennsylvania Official on a Tour.

A telegram from Gurdon, Ark., received by Robert Gage at 4 o'clock yesterday, conveyed the startling information that Nathaniel L. Chapman had died in that city. The news was all the more shocking from the fact that the wife of the deceased had the day previous received a letter from Mr. Chapman, which was written last Sunday and which stated that he was enjoying good health. A second telegram, received this morning, stated that the remains would be shipped to Fort Wayne, over the Wabash road, and would arrive here at 4:48 o'clock tomorrow morning. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the family residence, No. 10 Pritchard street, Dr. Henry W. Bennett officiating, and will be under the auspices of Wayne lodge, No. 25 F. and A. M., of which the deceased was an honored member.

The deceased was about sixty seven years old He leaves a wife, a daughter, Mrs. Eliza Sanborn, an adopted son, Joseph D. Gage, and one sister, Mrs. Sanborn.

Mr. Chapman was a locomotive engineer, his early railway service being on the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago road. In 1869 he left that company to take charge of one of the construction engines on the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville, now the Lake Erie and Western. After the road was completed, Mr. Chapman took a passenger run on it and shortly afterwards was changed to a passenger conductor, a position he held until about twelve years ago. Then he resigned and went to Hawarden, Iowa, to take charge of the round house for the Chicago and Northwestern. Three years later he resigned that position and returned to Fort Wayne to engage in the broom business with Robert Gage, who is his brother-in-law. He remained here three years and then went to Gordon, Ark., to run an engine on a log road owned by the Gordon Lumber company, a position he held when stricken down by disease. Mr. Chapman was an excellent man and was held in the highest esteem by our citizens. The news of his death will be a severe shock to all who knew him.

FLORENZ BOERGER'S FUNERAL.

The Pittsburg boiler shop will close tomorrow afternoon and the employes will turn out in a body at the funeral of their late comrade, Florenz J. Boerger, which will be held at the late residence of the deceased, 183 East Washington street, at 1:30 o'clock. The pall bearers, who were selected from the ranks of the shopmen, are: G. Trarbach, J. Manok, F. Minnich, R. Trebra, F. Vichon and J. Handenschild.

ENGINEER LINCOLN RESIGNS

W. S. Lincoln, chief of the Wabash engineering corps, has resigned. A number of changes are being made in the engineer's department of the road in the way of economical measures, and a reduction of the force was found necessary. Mr. Lincoln is a citizen of Logansport. He has been connected with the Wabash engineer corps for twenty-five years and has always been an efficient and obliging officer.

PENNSYLVANIA MOTIVE POWER

The executive committee of the motive power department of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg is making a trip over the different divisions in both systems. The committee is discussing many motive power questions, among them the test required of firemen when they are employed, and what examination shall be made when they are promoted to be engineers. The consumption of coal will also be discussed, and many other economic measures taken up.

SOLD A BIG ENGINE.

This morning the Bass Foundry and Machine works received an order from the Stanford Gas and Electric Light company, of Stanford, Conn., for a 500 horse power engine, to be built and delivered as soon as possible. The engine is to be of the cross compound Corliss pattern, with cylinders 19 and 36 by 48 inches. The order also includes some line shafting, pulleys and other machinery for an electric light plant. The Bass works yesterday shipped a large boiler to Long Island City, the first of a lot of five which are being built for parties living in that place.

MOVED A DEPOT BUILDING THREE MILES

William Martin, the house mover has completed the task of removing the station building of the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western at Townley and placing it on the site of the old station at Baldwin, which structure was consumed by fire on the evening of May 17. The distance between Baldwin and Townley is three miles. The building was raised and placed on two flat cars and then pulled to its destination. The sight of a house on wheels was a novel one and all along the line hundreds of farmers were stationed to witness the scene. The house had to be turned around at Baldwin, but it was successfully accomplished.

The James Nolan who was arrested for disorderly conduct was not the James Nolan in the Wabash freight house The latter gentleman is an honest, sober citizen and will never be arrested for any such offense as that charged against the man, who no doubt gave a fictitious name to the station officers.

The train which carried the Washington newspaper men to St. Louis on Tuesday over the Pennsylvania and Vandalia lines was one of the most completely equipped which ever came west It consisted of seven Pullman cars, including a dining car, a car with a library, barber shop and many other conveniences for traveling. The party was accompanied by George Boyd, assistant general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania. At the close of the republican convention the train will return with the party, going to Cape May to remain eight days, and then returning west to the national democratic convention.

The ticket scalpers admit that since the new mileage rules went into effect on the roads in the Western Passenger association their stocks are becoming depleted and some are likely to go to the wall. The new punch descriptive books cannot be successfully used by the scalpers, and the old forms of coupon round trip tickets and circuitous route tickets are nearly all off the market. The thirty-two roads in the association agreed with the brokers to redeem all mileage presented before June 15, and the books have been coming in on the general passenger agents in large numbers. The passenger agents say that since scalpers came into existence the market has not been so free from scalpable tickets.

She Cheered the Crew.

Not many girls of 18 would show themselves so brave as Margaret Neilsen of Norway, daughter of a sea captain. She recently sailed in her father's vessel, bound from Wales to Nova Scotia, and it was due to her courage that the whole crew was not drowned. Margaret had made several voyages with her father and he readily assented to her accompanying him on this one. With her pets, a water spaniel, a big black cat and a half dozen rabbits, she began the voyage. The ship was 27 years old but considered trustworthy, but a fierce gale sprung up soon after starting and the ship sprung a leak. All who could be spared from the management of the ship were put at the pumps and Margaret herself took a hand at the windmill pump and with encouraging words urged on the sailors at the other pumps. Huge waves constantly broke over the vessel and in spite of their gallant efforts gradually became filled with water. During all the trying hours Margaret sung cheerily. The old Norse sagas recounting the bravery of the sons of Norway rang out and the hearts of the discouraged sailors grew stouter. Finally the water was within three feet of the hold and sinking was inevitable. The captain, exhausted, had retired for a little sleep before the taking to the boats and despair reigned on deck. At this juncture Margaret declared she sighted a sail and this proved true. Signals of distress were run up and after hours of waiting a New York bound brig came and took them off the vessel, which soon sunk. On landing the captain plainly showed signs of the strain he had been through, but his daughter was as bright and calm as ever. She disclaims any heroism, but her father says it was her spirit which kept up the sailors.

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE

Between cheap goods that are not cheap at any price, no matter how low, and good goods sold cheap We have neither bankrupt stock nor shelf worn goods to sell, but we have brand new goods and sell them for less than others sell cheap goods that are not cheap at any price.

SEE OUR RED WINDOW!

What do you see? A number of MEN'S, BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SUITS with prices marked on them. Are they cheap? You can't tell through the glass. Come in and inspect them. Through the glass a $6.00 suit looks as good as the $12.00 suit. But come in and examine them—compare them with what others are offering, and you will see that we still sell good goods for less than others do.

STREWN WITH BARGAINS.

The first shot—Monday morning—at cut prices for this month of June—was a solid one—all day long the counters were lined up with customers. Today finds the store as full as ever of helpful goods to Fort Wayne shoppers—Prices have ruled low all season—But they've gone lower.

IMPORTANT---VERY IMPORTANT.

We Will Make Price An Object.

The prices on all grades of CARPETING have been cut, but there's a lot we're battling with that we are going to close out—some have enough for one room, some enough for two—Carpets of every make from Miltons to the solid every day Ingrains. These you are going to get at a very low price.

Curtains, Drapery and Window Shades all go into this cut sale—Mattings and Linoleums too.

A Shot at Waists.

We are going to sell some Laundried Waists, new, first-class styles, fine materials, at a saving to you of one-half; no such good waists were ever given to Fort Wayne women.
25c, 37c, 48c and 68c.

Black Silks.

While all silks have gone into this sale, nipped in price, we select one, nipped extra—a fine Black Brocade Silk, all pure silk, elegant for waists or dress, 50c.

White Parasols.

A third saving to you and a saving to you of one-third of a dollar—two beauties—white sticks, white frames, $1.00 and $1 25.

Wool Dress Goods.

The climax of low-price selling of fine dress fabrics has been reached in this cut-down sale. All Woolen Dress Goods which have sold at 85c, 79c, 75c, 68c and 50c,
At one price, 39c the yard.

Ladies' Tecks.

A demand has sprung up again for this popular neckwear; 12 dozen today; fine black satin, long, 21c each.

Dimities.

Early comers don't get any more plums or better than the later ones, but you get close up to the counters. Every yard of Dimity and Lawn has been reduced. And what a stock to select from! We believe more Dimities lay upon our counters than upon all other counters combined.
All Dimities reduced in price.

Chiffons reduced from 45c to 28c.
Grenadine Suisse from 40c to 25c.
The sweetest goods in town today.

All Dimities sell at 21c that were 25c up to 40c the yard.

Prints.

There'll be thousands of yards of those best prints at 3½c. We'll keep this up right along.

Ginghams

The 4c and 5c Gingham piles won't be allowed to diminish; they're too good a card to drop.

ATTEMPTED HOLD UP.

Bandits Stop a Train in a Lonely Place.

The Passengers Awakened by the Unusual Proceedings and Frighten the Robbers Away.

HUNTINGTON DEPOT, W. Va., June 12—Forty miles east of Charleston, at Cottonhill, on the Chesspeake and Ohio road, masked men attempted to hold up the Washington and Cincinnati express train last midnight. They boarded the train at Thurmond and crawled over the tender of the engine into the cab, with revolvers drawn. The engineer stopped the train and he was commanded to cut loose the express car. This was done, but by this time all the passengers were awakened and the lights were extinguished. After ten minutes' work the bandits became frightened and escaped to the mountains.

All Eyes Now Turned Towards San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12—Since the announcement that Corbett and Sharkey have been matched to fight, that city has been the mecca toward which the eyes of all pugilists are turned. The fistic experts are hastening to San Francisco from all parts of the country in expectation of a revival of the glorious times when there were several prize fights a week here. There is a state law prohibiting prize fights, but a complacent board of supervisors has allowed contests for a limited number of rounds, under the guise of charity entertainments. Numerous fights have been pulled off during the past four months under this arrangement, but now the civic federation has discovered that prize fihts are against the law and its members will endeavor to prevent the Sharkey-Corbett affair.

ALEXANDER JOHNSON.

The Terre Haute Gazette Pays Him a Compliment.

In its issue of yesterday the Terre Haute Gazette has the following to say editorially of Mr. Alexander Johnson, of this city:

"The election of Alexander Johnson to the presidency of the National Association of Charities and Corrections by the annual conference that has been in session at Grand Rapids, Mich., for the past week, and which adjourned today, is a high honor and it has been worthily bestowed. Mr. Johnson is now the superintendent of the Indiana Institute for the Feeble Minded at Fort Wayne. It is regarded as one of the model institutions of the kind in the world. Previous to his election to the superintendency of the institute at Fort Wayne and for several years he was secretary of the Indiana Board of State Charities, in which position he was a co worker with the late Oscar B. McCulloch. Mr. Johnson's selection to the presidency of the national association is a compliment worthily bestowed on a man whose identification with all the things the association stands for has been intimate and helpful."

The county attorney is being prosecuted on the charge of accepting money from a jointist.

The Stull & Miller dog and pony show, which is exhibiting on the lot on South Calhoun street, near Hamilton street, is one of the best entertainments of that class that has ever been seen in Fort Wayne. The show is giving the very best of satisfaction to the large crowds which are attending. Each and every act deserves special mention, but it would require too much space. Among them is a grand entry of ten trained ponies, who perform the most wonderful tricks. There is a pony drill and other things. One pony tells his age and answers questions; others do a teeter act, etc. The dogs form a great feature. The children are invited to ride the ponies after each performance. The price of admission is low, being ten and twenty cents.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE

Discussing the Platform and the Contests.

It Must be Definitely Either Gold or Silver, Each to Take the Chances on the Ballot.

ST. LOUIS Mo., June 12—Today the national committee spent the time in the discussion of the platform and the hearing of contests. Most of the McKinley men were seated.

The concensus of opinion is that the platform must be definitely either for gold or silver, each side to take its chances in the balloting.

This would leave the central states to settle the platform question.

POLES CUT DOWN.

Vigorous Measures Adopted at Logansport

By the City Council to Get Rid of the Jenney Company Opposition.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 12—A force of men under the direction of the electric light committee of the common council was set at work yesterday afternoon tearing down the wires and cutting down the line poles of the Jenny Electric Light company, as per a recent order of the council. Since the city has erected and put in operation an electric lighting plant of its own the lines of the Jenny company have been a hinderance, and the competition has caused the city plant to be operated at a very small profit in furnishing private consumers. The Jenny company has operated here since 1888 without a franchise, and it is by the advice of the city attorney that the lines and poles are being torn down.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED

At the Session of the Northern Indiana Editorial Association.

At the last session of the Northern Indiana Editorial association a committee on resolutions, consisting of Editors Kent, Louthain and McDonald, reported the following resolutions, which were adopted:

The members of the Northern Indiana Editorial asssociation desire to make formal expression of their appreciation of all the courtesies and kindnesses shown them during the sessions of the twenty-seventh annual meeting, held at Fort Wayne June 10 and 11, 1896.

We acknowledge that every effort possible has been made by the local members of the association and the citizens of Fort Wayne to make our visit pleasant and agreeable from the time of arrival to the minute of departure.

We express special gratification for the treatment accorded us by the Consolidated Street Railway company in showing to our astonished eyes the countless attractions of Fort Wayne and its surroundings; to Charles D. Tillo and the Chicago Newspaper Union for their novel and interesting methods of entertainment; to Miss Leo Long and the Haydn quartet for sweet and artistic music; to the gentlemen who so acceptably performed their respective parts in the entertainment at the opera house; to the street railway company and the management of the institute for feeble minded the opportunity afforded of visiting and inspecting one of our most worthy charitable institutions and the new and beautiful park; to the band for music.

These are but feeble expressions of our grateful recognition of the efforts put forth to make our stay in Fort Wayne pleasant and profitable.

An elegant lunch was served in the main building at the park by order of the street car company. After which the association adjourned, the members carrying with them to their homes only the most pleasant recollections of the hospitalities rendered them in this city. The question of place and date of the next meeting was left to the executive committee.

It is not out of place here to say that the newspaper men of the city appreciate very highly the generosity and heartiness with which the Chicago Newspaper Union, through their efficient manager, C. D. Tillo, the Fort Wayne club, by the generous offer of the use of their elegant rooms, and last but not least, the Consolidated Street railway, by their manifold courtesies, contributed in such an important degree to the success of this twenty-seventh annual meeting of the Northern Indiana Editorial association.

The following members were elected an executive committee: W. D. Page, F. W. Willis and Ed. Jurnegan.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

A. D. Craig Elected District Superintendent.

The state Sunday school convention, which has been in session this week at Crawfordsville, has been by far one of the best ever held in the state. A. D. Craig, one of the enthusiastic Sunday school workers of this county, was elected superintendent of the twenty-fourth district, which comprises the counties of Allen, Adams, Huntington and Wells. Allen county carried off the laurels and made the best rating of any county in the state, having organized twenty-one new Sunday schools during the year.

CLASS OF '96.

Commencement Exercises Held Last Night.

Twenty-nine Graduates Receive Their Diplomas.

Eloquent Address by Rev. Geo. S. Burroughs, President of Wabash College.

One of the largest audiences that ever attended the annual commencement exercises of the Fort Wayne high school was the one which was present at the Masonic Temple last night to witness the graduating of the class of '96. Every seat was taken and every available inch of standing room was occupied. In addition to this hundreds who came late were turned away being unable to gain entrance to the big building

The class of '96 was composed of the following graduates in the various courses:

CLASSICAL COURSE.

Harvey Shubert Banks, Lillian Marion Hays, Thomas Johnson Davis, Mary Janet Kern, Claire Pearl Foster, Lucille Ann Porter, Arthur Anthony Greenick, Harry Lingo Stonecifer, Winifred Evelyn Hartman, Rebecca Cornelia Swayne Lillie Belle Wilding.

LATIN COURSE.

Aurillia Ann Aker, Donald John Hayden, Mando Alice Gaskins, Agnes Emily Lansdown, Augusta Anna Haberkorn, Georgene Markey, Emma Mary Haberkorn, Frederick Calvin Mc Cracken.

Scientific Course—Carrie Isabel Akers, Hugh Brenton Hatch, Mabel Althea Hatch, Grace Agnes Hauck, Elizabeth Jane Hebert, Beatrice Kell Ada Mary McCormick, Mary Maud VanTilburg, Albert Lewis Waters, Jennie Gibson You.

The graduates were seated on either side of the stage, the center of the stage being vacant. In a long row at the rear of the class were the members of the school board, the superintendent and teachers of the high school, Rev J. L. Leeper and Rev. George S. Burroughs, president of Wabash college, who was to deliver the address of the evening. Altogether the stage setting was the prettiest and best arranged of any that has ever been made on such an occasion.

The girl graduates were lovely in white. Each one carried a beautiful bouquet of choice flowers.

The exercises opened with an overture by Reineke's full orchestra. This was followed by prayer by Rev. James L. Leeper, of the Westminster Presbyterian church. The prayer was earnest and eloquent in word and thought.

After another selection by the orchestra Hugh B. Hatch, the salutatorian, delivered his address. On behalf of the class he thanked the large audience for their presence. He said it plainly showed that the people were interested in the class, and they could best show that interest by attending the commencement exercises when the members of the class bid farewell to high school life. This interest was but a continuance of that shown in the past. The interest that has been displayed in the past is the kind that comes through kindness, but the interest that will be shown in the future will be the kind that is given only for value received. Our school life has been pleasant and fruitful, and we, as a class, hope to merit the interest of our friends in the future. As our class motto says: "They are never alone that are accompanied with noble thoughts."

Not only must we think well, but we must do well. We must fit ourselves for the practical side of life as well as for the theoretical. Our school holds a high, exalted position among the schools of the land and fits us for the practical work. Our school education furnishes us with every advantage for doing this. Many men we see wrestling with great questions who have not had the opportunity to acquire the necessary education which would enable them to solve them. It is true that the solution of all the great questions of the day depends on the education which is received in the public schools. Political questions, social questions and mechanical questions are alike in this regard. Schools are but nurseries for maturing thoughts. But all final education does not come from the high schools. This is the beginning, but after it has been received we must apply ourselves to the practical use of the education we have acquired. A glance at our great American inventors, Fulton, Morse and Edison, proves this.

Mr. Hatch's oration was received with a hearty round of applause. The orchestra played Waldteufel's waltz Militaer and then Dr. Irwin introduced Rev. Burroughs, who delivered the address of the evening on the subject "Finding Oneself Through Education."

The question "What For?" is an American question, said Rev. Burroughs. The American always is asking it. And all over the world an American is a Yankee He wants to know the reason for everything He wants to find himself through education. And as it is the question of the nineteenth century, so it will be the the question of the twentieth century. Everything must stand its test. The reason for all things must be ascertained and it must come out because the American will force it to show itself Education also must give an account of herself. There cannot be so strong a distinction between the education of culture and the education of utility. Culture and utility belong to gether. They should go hand in hand The old education is not distinct from the new, but a distinction can be drawn between the true education and the false education. Men must find themselves. They must find their places through educating themselves and then occupy those places. When Socrates, that great Athenian, went into Athens to find men and teach them to find themselves he struck the keynote. I remember one of those schools of finish which flourished with others of the same kind on the Hudson some years ago. It was a place where young ladies were taken in hand by teachers and instructed in how to appear well in society. A beautiful and wealthy girl from New York was sent there. After receiving her instructions examination day came. She failed. Word was at once sent to her million aire father that his daughter had failed. He could not understand it. "Why has she failed?" furiously inquired the millionaire. "Because," replied the teacher, "she lacks capacity." "Capacity," he exclaimed, 'Why, buy capacity at any price, and I will draw my check for the amount." Ah, buy capacity! What a fallacious thought Capacity cannot be purchased. Capacity must not be as a cistern which can be enlarged as it is filled. Rather it must be as the spring from which flow the potencies of natural ability. To comprehend education the scholar must see the inner soul of the teacher.

Fundamental in education is nature study. Science is the uncovering of the great facts of life as revealed in the universe. The laws of nature are but methods of life; force and energy are but expressions of will. On every side, in the nature of things, is found intelligent guiding power. Man is developed most truly as he puts himself in harmony with his environment. His culture consists in the adaptation of his experiences to the forces of life round about him In other words, he finds himself in large degree through finding his relation to his physical environment. The great progress of modern civilization, the marvelous development of our present industries and the possibility of still greater advances on the part of physical science in the decades just before us, rest back upon this great principle. We educate truly when we bring the growing mind into conscious harmony with nature round about.

History discloses the finding of itself on the part of the human race as it comes more and more consciously into possession of its powers in relation to surrounding nature. The study of history is not simply the mastering of facts much less of barren dates. The true and philosophical conception of history is that it consists in a chain of cause and effect, moving on as the race discovers its possibilities and its larger opportunities. The genius of each race, and of each nation, is to be found in its consciousness of its mission to its day and its environment. In other words, man finds himself in the national life, and each individual is to find his place in relation to this national life. The education of today is, therefore, pre eminently emphasizing the development of judgment, reason and powers of self control through such a conception of history study in relation to the development of man in historical circumstances

Perhaps the crowning feature of an educational system is its mastery of life as it discovers itself in literature. Literature is the mirror of life. The manifold experience of all lands and of all ages has been crystalized, conserved and handed down through letters.

We may say that the best of the human race have found themselves in these high and noble utterances which we characterize collectively as literature. More and more, back of the book we are seeing the man, the man who has pre-eminently realized self, he who finds in self the mirror of the external world and in his mental possessions a heritage of all the history of the past. Science, history, literature, the study of these, gathered together comprehensively, is the finding of itself on the part of humanity. The true education, through the use of these studies, brings to the birth personal character, develops individual traits and fits for noble personal service, those who receive the blessings of our inestimable public system of education. American citizenship is the fruitage of the American school system, and American character is the outcome of the true educational spirit.

The audience fully appreciated the great effort of Rev. Burroughs to set forth the true meaning of education, and the applause which followed the closing of his address was significant

The valedictorian was Harvey S Banks. In well chosen words he pictured the regret of the class at parting from high school life There is, he said, always a feeling of sorrow at such a parting, yet it is accompanied by another feeling of joy The associations which have been so pleasant for years past are to be broken so far as school is concerned, yet the members of the class hope that tonight is the beginning of bright careers And it is with a feeling of joy that we see this large audience before us, composed of people who have patiently and anxiously awaited this triumphant moment of our high school life We realize

THE failure of General Weyler in Cuba has been more complete than the failure of General Campos, and has been more humiliating to Spain. But it is to be presumed that Weyler will be retained, and that he will continue to permit his officers to murder unoffending citizens for showing lack of enthusiasm, so long as no protest comes from the government of the United States.

THE MILLIONAIRES

Went Down Just Like Poor People.

The Colts Win From Washington by a Score of 17 to 8—Captain Tebeau's Explanation.

	Played.	Won.	Lost.	Per ct.
Fort Wayne	33	20	7	.588
Wheeling	31	18	13	.581
New Castle	33	18	15	.545

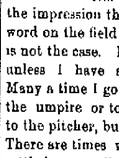
Washington	32	13	19	.406
Saginaw	27	12	21	.364
Youngstown	31	9	22	.290



Yesterday's game at Lakeside was simply an alleged game of base ball. McKeown and his team of millionaires from Washington, Pa., made their initial bow in this city and swallowed a bitter pill of defeat. A young man named McCleary tried to pitch for the millionaires and he stood the racket for two innings and he was then relieved by another young man named Martin. Neither one could throw a ball hard enough to knock a mosquito off a bat and of course the Colts didn't do a thing to them. Knell pitched for Fort Wayne and of course this meant that Fort Wayne would win.

Mitchell, the big catcher for the Washington team, is the happiest man that ever trod the diamond, and his little sallies of fun were highly enjoyed by the crowd. Mitchell is a good ball player and understands his business. What the Washington's lack is team work.

The score by innings was as follows.

	R	H	E
Fort Wayne	0 2 0 2 4 1 4 0 1	17	18 2
Washington	0 0 0 0 0 0 1 2 5	8	13 5

Earned runs—Fort Wayne, 4; Washington, 6. Two base hits—Grey, King, 2, O'Mears, Mitchell. Three base hits—Tebeau, 2, Cargo. Passed ball—Mitchell. First base on balls—By Knell, 2, by McCleary, 6; by Martin, 2 Hit by pitcher—Lynch, Rhinehart. Struck out—By Knell, 6; by McCleary, 1. Double plays—Kuhn and Bates; Dougheny, Kuhn and Bates. Umpire—Andrews. Time—2.15.

CAPTAIN TEBEAU'S EXPLANATION.

Last night Captain Tebeau, of the Fort Wayne team, said to a SENTINEL reporter. "The people of Fort Wayne do not seem to understand my actions on the ball field. They have received the impression that every time I say a word on the field I am kicking. This is not the case. I never make a kick unless I have a good kick coming. Many a time I go up and say a thing to the umpire or to one of the players or to the pitcher, but I am not kicking. There are times when a pitcher gets rattled, especially young pitchers, and then they go all to pieces. Whenever I see that our pitcher is becoming excited and likely to go to pieces, I always take a little time and go up and say a few words of encouragement to him, or else I talk to the umpire or somebody else in order to give the pitcher a chance to get his nerve and settle down. I never roast a pitcher nor kick to him. I know better than to do this, but I often manage to kill a little time in some way so he can get over his rattles. If I did not do this we would lose two thirds of our games. Our team just now has a winning streak and we want to make the best of it, for we are liable at any time to have our luck changed and lose fifteen out of twenty games. We can't tell when this will happen. Now, my throwing that ball over the fence in the Youngstown game the other day was done simply as a joke. It was done in a spirit of mischief. Hazen had been kidding us and guying us from the bench and I threw the ball over just in order to get him to make a little kick for fun. I had no idea that it would go so far. The umpire had another old ball which I offered to let them use, and it was worse than the one I threw away. I know such a thing is not in base ball, and if I had had any idea that it would have been carried so far I would not have done it The people have the wrong idea of me, and I would like for them to watch and they will see that I do not kick half so much as they think I do"

JACKSON, 17, NEW CASTLE 13.

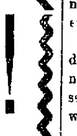
NOTES OF THE GAME.

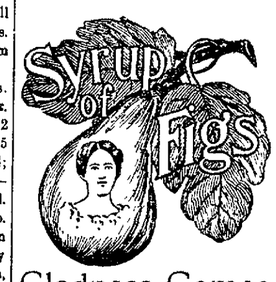
The Colts went to Defiance today to play an exhibition game They were determined to win today and get revenge for the game they lost at Defiance some time ago Captain Tebeau will pitch for the Colts. He can do it.



Criger caught his old-time game yesterday and his throwing to bases was a revelation to the Millionaires.

Tebeau made two three-base hits and a home run yesterday.

Carrick was called home yesterday by the serious illness of his mother, who is said to be lying at the point of death. This leaves the team with only two pitchers, but Manager Meyer has sent for Powell, the crack pitcher of the Chicago Maroons, who will arrive today and be given a trial Powell is a good man and a good hitter.



Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies then not needed. If afflicted with actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

MUST PAY FOR ROADS.

Gravel Road Law Taxing Cities Held Valid.

The supreme court, Tuesday, rendered a decision upholding the law which permits the taxation of city property for the maintenance of gravel roads. This law has caused a vast amount of complaint in the cities and towns throughout the state where property has been taken to keep up country roads. The case decided Tuesday was one appealed to the supreme court by N. S. Byram, of Indianapolis. Mr. Byram had petitioned the county commissioners to refund the proportion of his taxes that had gone into the gravel road funds. The county commissioners refused and Mr. Byram brought suit in the circuit court to recover the amount. The circuit court sustained the law and found for the defendants, and Mr. Byram appealed to the supreme court, which sustained the lower court.

CLASS OF '96.

that our work has been successful and that under the careful guidance of our teachers we have well begun our education. We have learned the truth of the well known saying of Confucius that "Learning undigested by thought is labor lost; thought unassisted by learning is perilous" A young man may spend years in a medical college and be able to name the symptoms of every disease known to medicine, yet be unfit to take charge of a simple case of measles At the end of school life he has failed to acquire the habit of thinking. Let us hope that the class of '96, which has started out so well, will not lose their thinking ability. Mr. Banks paid a high compliment to the teachers, the superintendent and the members of the school board.

Mr O. P. Morgan, whose term of office as school trustee expired last night, delivered a short address reviewing the history of the public schools of Fort Wayne since their foundation. Among other things, Mr. Morgan said:

In 1853, when our city numbered about 5 000 inhabitants, the public schools were opened in two small frame buildings, one on the corner of Wayne and Griffith streets, taught by Mr. and Mrs. Hutbert, and the other on Lafayette street, between Berry and Wayne streets, known as the McJunkin school house, and taught by Mr. Isaac Mahurin and his sister.

The first school house erected was the one known as the Clay school building (which was burned some two or three years ago), and the second, the Jefferson building. Other school houses have been erected as necessity has demanded, until now we have between 5,000 and 6 000 pupils and 131 teachers.

In 1865 the first class was graduated, consisting of four young ladies, two of whom are now teaching in the city. Your honored superintendent and myself were members of the school board at that time and our names have been attached to every diploma issued bo the board since then except two years, when I occupied a position as city councilman.

From 1865 to and including the present year there have been graduated from the high school 385 young women and 132 young men; seventeen of whom took the post graduate course, seventy the full classical, including Greek, 216 the Latin and 213 the scientific course. In addition to these 174 young women graduated from the training school.

The management of the funds belonging to the schools, I believe has been commendably judicious. We have fourteen buildings, which, with the grounds and furniture, are estimated to be worth $350,000, and not a dollar of debt: and have in course of construction the beautiful Lakeside school house to cost, when completed and furnished, $20 000, and a very handsome four room building to be built this fall in South Wayne to cost about $14,000 when completed and furnished The money is on hand to pay every dollar.

After Mr. Morgan presented the diplomas to the class Rev. Leeper pronounced the benediction, the audience sang the doxology and the exercises were finished.

Following the commencement a reception and banquet was held at the Wayne club.

DEATH OF AN ENGINEER

Nathaniel L. Chapman Suddenly Stricken Down.

Civil Engineer Lincoln Resigns—F. J. Boerger's Funeral—Pennsylvania Official on a Tour.

A telegram from Gurdon, Ark., received by Robert Gage at 4 o'clock yesterday, conveyed the startling information that Nathaniel L. Chapman had died in that city. The news was all the more shocking from the fact that the wife of the deceased had the day previous received a letter from Mr. Chapman, which was written last Sunday and which stated that he was enjoying good health. A second telegram, received this morning, stated that the remains would be shipped to Fort Wayne, over the Wabash road, and would arrive here at 4 48 o'clock tomorrow morning The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the family residence, No. 10 Pritchard street, Dr. Henry W. Bennett officiating, and will be under the auspices of Wayne lodge, No. 25 F. and A. M., of which the deceased was an honored member.

The deceased was about sixty seven years old He leaves a wife, a daughter, Mrs. Eliza Sanborn, an adopted son, Joseph D. Gage, and one sister, Mrs. Sanborn.

Mr. Chapman was a locomotive engineer, his early railway service being on the Pittsburg Fort Wayne and Chicago road. In 1869 he left that company to take charge of one of the construction engines on the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville, now the Lake Erie and Western. After the road was completed, Mr. Chapman took a passenger run on it and shortly afterwards was changed to a passenger conductor, a position he held until about twelve years ago. Then he resigned and went to Hawarden, Iowa, to take charge of the round house for the Chicago and Northwestern. Three years later he resigned that position and returned to Fort Wayne to engage in the broom business with Robert Gage, who is his brother-in-law. He remained here three years and then went to Gordon, Ark., to run an engine on a log road owned by the Gordon Lumber company, a position he held when stricken down by disease. Mr. Chapman was an excellent man and was held in the highest esteem by our citizens. The news of his death will be a severe shock to all who knew him.

FLORENZ BOERGER'S FUNERAL.

The Pittsburg boiler shop will close tomorrow afternoon and the employes will turn out in a body at the funeral of their late comrade, Florenz J. Boerger, which will be held at the late residence of the deceased, 183 East Washington street, at 1:30 o'clock. The pall bearers, who were selected from the ranks of the shopmen, are: G. Trarbach, J. Manok, F. Minnich, R. Trebra, F. Vrchon and J. Handenschild.

ENGINEER LINCOLN RESIGNS

W. S Lincoln, chief of the Wabash engineering corps, has resigned. A number of changes are being made in the engineer's department of the road in the way of economical measures, and a reduction of the force was found necessary. Mr. Lincoln is a citizen of Logansport He has been connected with the Wabash engineer corps for twenty five years and has always been an efficient and obliging officer.

PENNSYLVANIA MOTIVE POWER

The executive committee of the motive power department of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg is making a trip over the different divisions in both systems. The committee is discussing many motive power questions, among them the test required of firemen when they are employed, and what examination shall be made when they are promoted to be engineers. The consumption of coal will also be discussed, and many other economic measures taken up.

SOLD A BIG ENGINE.

This morning the Bass Foundry and Machine works received an order from the Stanford Gas and Electric Light company, of Stanford, Conn., for a 500 horse power engine, to be built and delivered as soon as possible The engine is to be of the cross compound Corliss pattern, with cylinders 19 and 36 by 48 inches. The order also includes some line shafting, pulleys and other machinery for an electric light plant. The Bass works yesterday shipped a large boiler to Long Island City, the first of a lot of five which are being built for parties living in that place.

MOVED A DEPOT BUILDING THREE MILES

William Martin, the house mover, has completed the task of removing the station building of the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western at Townley and placing it on the site of the old station at Baldwin, which structure was consumed by fire on the evening of May 17. The distance between Baldwin and Townley is three miles. The building was raised and placed on two flat cars and then pulled to its destination. The sight of a house on wheels was a novel one and all along the line hundreds of farmers were stationed to witness the scene. The house had to be turned around at Baldwin, but it was successfully accomplished.

The ticket scalpers admit that since the new mileage rules went into effect on the roads in the Western Passenger association their stocks are becoming depleted and some are likely to go to the wall. The new punch descriptive books cannot be successfully used by the scalpers, and the old forms of coupon round trip tickets and circuitous route tickets are nearly all off the market The thirty-two roads in the association agreed with the brokers to redeem all mileage presented before June 15, and the books have been coming in on the general passenger agents in large numbers. The passenger agents say that since scalpers came into existence the market has not been so free from scalpable tickets.

She Cheered the Crew.

Not many girls of 18 would show themselves so brave as Margaret Neilsen of Norway, daughter of a sea captain. She recently sailed in her father's vessel, bound from Wales to Nova Scotia, and it was due to her courage that the whole crew was not drowned. Margaret had made several voyages with her father and he readily assented to her accompanying him on this one. With her pets, a water spaniel, a big black cat and a half dozen rabbits, she began the voyage. The ship was 27 years old but considered trustworthy, but a fierce gale sprung up soon after starting and the ship sprung a leak All who could be spared from the management of the ship were put at the pumps and Margaret herself took a hand at the windmill pump and with encouraging words urged on the sailors at the other pumps. Huge waves constantly broke over the vessel and in spite of their gallant efforts gradually became filled with water. During all the trying hours Margaret sang cheerily. The old Norse sagas recounting the bravery of the sons of Norway rang out and the hearts of the discouraged sailors grew stouter. Finally the water was within three feet of the hold and sinking was inevitable. The captain, exhausted, had retired for a little sleep before the taking to the boats and despair reigned on deck. At this juncture Margaret declared she sighted a sail and this proved true. Signals of distress were run up and after hours of waiting a New York bound brig came and took them off the vessel, which soon sunk. On landing the captain plainly showed signs of the strain he had been through, but his daughter was as bright and calm as ever. She disclaims any heroism, but her father says it was her spirit which kept up the sailors.

THERE IS A DIFFERENCE

Between cheap goods that are not cheap at any price, no matter how low, and good goods sold cheap We have neither bankrupt stock nor shelf worn goods to sell, but we have brand new goods and sell them for less than others sell cheap goods that are not cheap at any price.

SEE OUR RED WINDOW!

What do you see? A number of MEN'S, BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SUITS with prices marked on them. Are they cheap? You can't tell through the glass. Come in and inspect them. Through the glass a $6.00 suit looks as good as the $12 00 suit. But come in and examine them—compare them with what others are offering, and you will see that we still sell good goods for less than others do.

ATTEMPTED HOLD UP.

Bandits Stop a Train in a Lonely Place.

The Passengers Awakened by the Unusual Proceedings and Frighten the Robbers Away.

HUNTINGTON DEPOT, W. Va., June 12.—Forty miles east of Charleston, at Cottonhill, on the Chesapeake and Ohio road, masked men attempted to hold up the Washington and Cincinnati express train last midnight. They boarded the train at Thurmond and crawled over the tender of the engine into the cab, with revolvers drawn. The engineer stopped the train and he was commanded to cut loose the express car. This was done, but by this time all the passengers were awakened and the lights were extinguished. After ten minutes' work the bandits became frightened and escaped to the mountains.

PUGILISTIC EVENT.

All Eyes Now Turned Towards San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—Since the announcement that Corbett and Sharkey have been matched to fight, that city has been the mecca toward which the eyes of all pugilists are turned. The fistic experts are hastening to San Francisco from all parts of the country in expectation of a revival of the glorious times when there were several prize fights a week here. There is a state law prohibiting prize fights, but a complacent board of supervisors has allowed contests for a limited number of rounds, under the guise of charity entertainments. Numerous fights have been pulled off during the past four months under this arrangement, but now the civic federation has discovered that prize fihts are against the law and its members will endeavor to prevent the Sharkey-Corbett affair.

ALEXANDER JOHNSON.

The Terre Haute Gazette Pays Him a Compliment.

In its issue of yesterday the Terre Haute Gazette has the following to say editorially of Mr. Alexander Johnson, of this city:

"The election of Alexander Johnson to the presidency of the National Association of Charities and Corrections by the annual conference that has been in session at Grand Rapids, Mich., for the past week, and which adjourned today, is a high honor and it has been worthily bestowed. Mr. Johnson is now the superintendent of the Indiana Institute for the Feeble Minded at Fort Wayne. It is regarded as one of the model institutions of the kind in the world. Previous to his election to the superintendency of the institute at Fort Wayne and for several years he was secretary of the Indiana Board of State Charities, in which position he was a co worker with the late Oscar B. McCulloch. Mr. Johnson's selection to the presidency of the national association is a compliment worthily bestowed on a man whose identification with all the things the association stands for has been intimate and helpful."

WAR ON SALOONS.

Whisky Sellers at Ellis, Kan., are Consigned to the Cooler.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 12.—The woman city government at Ellis is at war with illegal liquor venders, and all but two violators have been prosecuted and languish in jail. At the recent election the women promised, if given control of the city, to drive out gamblers and "jointists." They have made good the pledge. The county attorney is being prosecuted on the charge of accepting money from a jointist.

Trotting Results at Overland.

DENVER, June 12.—Trotting summaries at Overland yesterday:

The Stull & Miller dog and pony show, which is exhibiting on the lot on South Calhoun street, near Hamilton street, is one of the best entertainments of that class that has ever been seen in Fort Wayne. The show is giving the very best of satisfaction to the large crowds which are attending. Each and every act deserves special mention, but it would require too much space. Among them is a grand entry of ten trained ponies, who perform the most wonderful tricks. There is a pony drill and other things. One pony tells his age and answers questions; others do a teeter act, etc. The dogs form a great feature. The children are invited to ride the ponies after each performance. The price of admission is low, being ten and twenty cents.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE

Discussing the Platform and the Contests.

It Must be Definitely Either Gold or Silver, Each to Take the Chances on the Ballot.

ST. LOUIS Mo., June 12.—Today the national committee spent the time in the discussion of the platform and the hearing of contests. Most of the McKinley men were seated.

The concensus of opinion is that the platform must be definitely either for gold or silver, each side to take its chances in the balloting.

This would leave the central states to settle the platform question.

POLES CUT DOWN.

Vigorous Measures Adopted at Logansport

By the City Council to Get Rid of the Jenney Company Opposition.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 12.—A force of men under the direction of the electric light committee of the common council was set at work yesterday afternoon tearing down the wires and cutting down the line poles of the Jenny Electric Light company, as per a recent order of the council. Since the city has erected and put in operation an electric lighting plant of its own the lines of the Jenny company have been a hinderance, and the competition has caused the city plant to be operated at a very small profit in furnishing private consumers. The Jenny company has operated here since 1888 without a franchise, and it is by the advice of the city attorney that the lines and poles are being torn down.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED

At the Session of the Northern Indiana Editorial Association.

At the last session of the Northern Indiana Editorial association a committee on resolutions, consisting of Editors Kent, Louthain and McDonald, reported the following resolutions, which were adopted:

The members of the Northern Indiana Editorial asssociation desire to make formal expression of their appreciation of all the courtesies and kindnesses shown them during the sessions of the twenty-seventh annual meeting, held at Fort Wayne June 10 and 11, 1896.

We acknowledge that every effort possible has been made by the local members of the association and the citizens of Fort Wayne to make our visit pleasant and agreeable from the time of arrival to the minute of departure.

We express special gratification for the treatment accorded us by the Consolidated Street Railway company in showing to our astonished eyes the countless attrsctions of Fort Wayne and its surroundings; to Charles D. Tillo and the Chicago Newspaper Union for their novel and interesting methods of entertainment; to Miss Leo Long and the Haydn quartet for sweet and artistic music; to the gentlemen who so acceptably performed their respective parts in the entertainment at the opera house; to the street railway company and the management of the institute for feeble minded the opportunity afforded of visiting and inspecting one of our most worthy charitable institutions and the new and beautiful park; to the band for music.

These are but feeble expressions of our grateful recognition of the efforts put forth to make our stay in Fort Wayne pleasant and profitable.

An elegant lunch was served in the main building at the park by order of the street car company. After which the association adjourned, the members carrying with them to their homes only the most pleasant recollections of the hospitalities rendered them in this city. The question of place and date of the next meeting was left to the executive committee.

It is not out of place here to say that the newspaper men of the city appreciate very highly the generosity and heartiness with which the Chicago Newspaper Union, through their efficient manager, C. D. Tillo, the Fort Wayne club, by the generous offer of the use of their elegant rooms, and last but not least, the Consolidated Street railway, by their manifold courtesies, contributed in such an important degree to the success of this twenty-seventh annual meeting of the Northern Indiana Editorial association.

The following members were elected an executive committee: W. D. Page, F. W. Willis and Ed. Jurnegan.

CLASS OF '96.

Commencement Exercises Held Last Night.

Twenty-nine Graduates Receive Their Diplomas.

Eloquent Address by Rev. Geo. S. Burroughs, President of Wabash College.

One of the largest audiences that ever attended the annual commencement exercises of the Fort Wayne high school was the one which was present at the Masonic Temple last night to witness the graduating of the class of '96. Every seat was taken and every available inch of standing room was occupied. In addition to this hundreds who came late were turned away being unable to gain entrance to the big building.

The class of '96 was composed of the following graduates in the various courses:

CLASSICAL COURSE.

Harvey Shaubert Banks, Lillias Marion Hays, Thomas Johnson Davis, Mary Janet Kern, Claire Pearl Foster, Lucille Ann Porter, Arthur Anthony Greenick, Harry Lingo Stonecifer, Winifred Evelyn Hartman, Rebecca Cornelia Swayne Lillie Belle Wilding.

LATIN COURSE.

Aurillia Ann Aker, Donald John Hayden, Maude Alice Gaskins, Agnes Emily Lansdown, Augusta Anna Haberkorn, Georgene Markey, Emma Mary Haberkorn, Frederick Calvin Mc Cracken.

Scientific Course—Carrie Isabel Akers, Hugh Brenton Hatch, Mabel Althea Hatch, Grace Agnes Hauck, Elizabeth Jane Hebert, Beatrice Kell Ada Mary McCormick, Mary Maud VanTilburg, Albert Lewis Waters, Jennie Gibson You.

The graduates were seated on either side of the stage, the center of the stage being vacant. In a long row at the rear of the class were the members of the school board, the superintendent and teachers of the high school, Rev. J. L. Leeper and Rev. George S. Burroughs, president of Wabash college, who was to deliver the address of the evening. Altogether the stage setting was the prettiest and best arranged of any that has ever been made on such an occasion.

The girl graduates were lovely in white. Each one carried a beautiful bouquet of choice flowers

The exercises opened with an overture by Reineke's full orchestra. This was followed by prayer by Rev. James L. Leeper, of the Westminster Presbyterian church. The prayer was earnest and eloquent in word and thought.

After another selection by the orchestra Hugh B. Hatch, the salutatorian, delivered his address. On behalf of the class he thanked the large audience for their presence. He said it plainly showed that the people were interested in the class, and they could best show that interest by attending the commencement exercises when the members of the class bid farewell to high school life. This interest was but a continuance of that shown in the past. The interest that has been displayed in the past is the kind that comes through kindness, but the interest that will be shown in the future will be the kind that is given only for value received. Our school life has been pleasant and fruitful, and we, as a class, hope to merit the interest of our friends in the future. As our class motto says: "They are never alone that are accompanied with noble thoughts."

Not only must we think well, but we must do well. We must fit ourselves for the practical side of life as well as for the theoretical. Our school holds a high, exalted position among the schools of the land and fits us for the practical work. Our school education furnishes us with every advantage for doing this. Many men we see wrestling with great questions who have not had the opportunity to acquire the necessary education which would enable them to solve them. It is true that the solution of all the great questions of the day depends on the education which is received in the public schools. Political questions, social questions and mechanical questions are alike in this regard. Schools are but nurseries for maturing thoughts. But all final education does not come from the high schools. This is the beginning, but after it has been received we must apply ourselves to the practical use of the education we have acquired. A glance at our great American inventors, Fulton, Morse and Edison, proves this.

Mr. Hatch's oration was received with a hearty round of applause. The orchestra played Waldteufel's waltz Militaer and then Dr. Irwin introduced Rev. Burroughs, who delivered the address of the evening on the subject "Finding Oneself Through Education."

The question "What For?" is an American question, said Rev. Burroughs. The American always is asking it. And all over the world an American is a Yankee He wants to know the reason for everything He wants to find himself through education. And as it is the question of the nineteenth century, so it will be the the question of the twentieth century. Everything must stand its test The reason for all things must be ascertained and it must come out because the American will force it to show itself. Education also must give an account of herself. There cannot be so strong a distinction between the education of culture and the education of utility. Culture and utility belong together. They should go hand in hand. The old education is not distinct from the new, but a distinction can be drawn between the true education and the false education. Men must find themselves. They must find their places through educating themselves and then occupy those places. When Socrates, that great Athenian, went into Athens to find men and teach them to find themselves he struck the keynote. I remember one of those schools of finish which flourished with others of the same kind on the Hudson some years ago. It was a place where young ladies were taken in hand by teachers and instructed in how to appear well in society. A beautiful and wealthy girl from New York was sent there. After receiving her instructions examination day came. She failed Word was at once sent to her millionaire father that his daughter had failed. He could not understand it. "Why has she failed?" furiously inquired the millionaire. "Because," replied the teacher, "she lacks capacity." "Capacity," he exclaimed, "Why, buy capacity at any price, and I will draw my check for the amount." Ah, buy capacity! What a fallacious thought Capacity cannot be purchased. Capacity must not be as a cistern which can be enlarged as it is filled. Rather it must be as the spring from which flow the potencies of natural ability. To comprehend education the scholar must see the inner soul of the teacher.

Fundamental in education is nature study. Science is the uncovering of the great facts of life as revealed in the universe. The laws of nature are but methods of life; force and energy are but expressions of will. On every side, in the nature of things, is found intelligent guiding power. Man is developed most truly as he puts himself in harmony with his environment. His culture consists in the adaptation of his experiences to the forces of life round about him. In other words, he finds himself in large degree through finding his relation to his physical environment. The great progress of modern civilization, the marvelous development of our present industries and the possibility of still greater advances on the part of physical science in the decades just before us, rest back upon this great principle. We educate truly when we bring the growing mind into conscious harmony with nature round about.

History discloses the finding of itself on the part of the human race as it comes more and more consciously into possession of its powers in relation to surrounding nature. The study of history is not simply the mastering of facts, much less of barren dates. The true and philosophical conception of history is that it consists in a chain of cause and effect, moving on as the race discovers its possibilities and its larger opportunities. The genius of each race, and of each nation, is to be found in its consciousness of its mission to its day and its environment. In other words, man finds himself in the national life, and each individual is to find his place in relation to this national life. The education of today is, therefore, pre eminently emphasizing the development of judgment, reason and powers of self control through such a conception of history study in relation to the development of man in historical circumstances.

Perhaps the crowning feature of an educational system is its mystery of life as it discovers itself in literature. Literature is the mirror of life. The manifold experience of all lands and of all ages has been crystalized, conserved and handed down through letters.

We may say that the best of the human race have found themselves in those high and noble utterances which we characterize collectively as literature. More and more, back of the book we are seeing the man, the man who has pre-eminently realized self, he who finds in self the mirror of the external world and in his mental possessions a heritage of all the history of the past. Science, history, literature, the study of these, gathered together comprehensively, is the finding of itself on the part of humanity. The true education, through the use of these studies, brings to the birth personal character, develops individual traits and fits for noble personal service, those who receive the blessings of our inestimable public system of education. American citizenship is the fruitage of the American school system, and American character is the outcome of the true educational spirit.

The audience fully appreciated the great effort of Rev. Burroughs to set forth the true meaning of education, and the applause which followed the closing of his address was significant

The valedictorian was Harvey S. Banks. In well chosen words he pictured the regret of the class at parting from high school life. There is, he said, always a feeling of sorrow at such a parting, yet it is accompanied by another feeling of joy. The associations which have been so pleasant for years past are to be broken so far as school is concerned, yet the members of the class hope that tonight is the beginning of bright careers And it is with a feeling of joy that we see this large audience before us, composed of people who have patiently and anxiously awaited this triumphant moment of our high school life We realize

THERE is plenty of room at the top, and the graduate's diploma is the first step towards getting to it by degrees.

THE national platform workers of both parties are at work formulating the best phrases for straddling the silver question.

THE Wells county democrats to the state convention will present the name of ex-Auditor W. H. Ernst as a candidate for auditor of state.

THE man on whom this nation great a long, admiring look will turn, is he who truthfully can state "I made that motion to adjourn."

FORT WAYNE is proud of her public schools and she is proud of its graduates, many of whom are now prominent in the different callings of life.

DO not talk about taking the veto power away from the president as long as it is as wisely exercised as it is, during periods when such a congress as that which has just adjourned is the source of legislation.

IT is quite an honor to Mr. Alexander Johnson, of this city, to receive the presidency of the National Association of Charities, to which office he was elected at the meeting just held at Grand Rapids, Mich.

THE Indianapolis News says that the Indiana Germans may redeem the state to sound money. "Even admitting that Indiana is for free silver now," says the News, "it does not at all follow that it will be for free silver when election day rolls around. In that educational work the Germans will bear a large part. They are very much in earnest in their opposition to free silver, and they are mostly men of intelligence and influence."

THE failure of General Weyler in Cuba has been more complete than the failure of General Campos, and has been more humiliating to Spain. He has not only failed to put down the insurrection, but he has failed to maintain decent order and discipline among his troops, and he has failed in his efforts to prevent any knowledge of the atrocities committed by them from being known and published to the world. But it is to be presumed that Weyler will be retained, and that he will continue to permit his officers to murder unoffending citizens for showing lack of enthusiasm, so long as no protest comes from the government of the United States.

Columbia City Post: "Mrs. Pat Lawler, of the south side, who has been an invalid for the past four years, was taken to the St. Joseph hospital in Fort Wayne last evening for future care. She was accompanied by her daughter Mary and Miss Mary Neiligan, of Fort Wayne."

Went Down Just Like Poor People.

The Colts Win From Washington by a Score of 17 to 5—Captain Tebeau's Explanation.

Washington	31	9	22	.290

Yesterday's game at Lakeside was simply an alleged game of base ball. McKeown and his team of millionaires from Washington, Pa., made their initial bow in this city and swallowed a bitter pill of defeat. A young man named McCleary tried to pitch for the millionaires and he stood the racket for two innings and he was then relieved by another young man named Martin. Neither one could throw a ball hard enough to knock a mosquito off a bat and of course the Colts didn't do a thing to them. Knell pitched for Fort Wayne and of course this meant that Fort Wayne would win.

Mitchell, the big catcher for the Washington team, is the happiest man that ever trod the diamond, and his little sallies of fun were highly enjoyed by the crowd. Mitchell is a good ball player and understands his business. What the Washington's lack is team work.

The score by innings was as follows:

	R	H	E.
Washington	0	0	0 0 0 0 0 1 2	5	8	3

Earned runs—Fort Wayne, 4; Washington, 0. Two base hits—Grey, King, 2; O'Meara, Mitchell. Three base hits—Tebeau, 2; Cargo. Passed ball—Mitchell. First base on balls—By Knell, 2; by McCleary, 6; by Martin, 2. Hit by pitcher—Lynch, Rhinehart. Struck out—By Knell, 6; by McCleary, 1. Double plays—Kuhn and Bates; Dougheny, Kuhn and Bates. Umpire—Andrews. Time—2:15.

CAPTAIN TEBEAU'S EXPLANATION.

Last night Captain Tebeau, of the Fort Wayne team, said to a SENTINEL reporter: "The people of Fort Wayne do not seem to understand my actions on the ball field. They have received the impression that every time I say a word on the field I am kicking. This is not the case. I never make a kick unless I have a good kick coming. Many a time I go up and say a thing to the umpire or to one of the players or to the pitcher, but I am not kicking. There are times when a pitcher gets rattled, especially young pitchers, and then they go all to pieces. Whenever I see that our pitcher is becoming excited and likely to go to pieces, I always take a little time and go up and say a few words of encouragement to him, or else I talk to the umpire or somebody else in order to give the pitcher a chance to get his nerve and settle down. I never roast a pitcher nor kick to him. I know better than to do this, but I often manage to kill a little time in some way so he can get over his rattles. If I did not do this we would lose two thirds of our games. Our team just now has a winning streak and we want to make the best of it, for we are liable at any time to have our luck changed and lose fifteen out of twenty games. We can't tell when this will happen. Now, my throwing that ball over the fence in the Youngstown game the other day was done simply as a joke. It was done in a spirit of mischief. Hazen had been kidding us and guying us from the bench and I threw the ball over just in order to get him to make a little kick for fun. I had no idea that it would go so far. The umpire had another old ball which I offered to let them use, and it was worse than the one I threw away. I know such a thing is not in base ball, and if I had had any idea that it would have been carried so far I would not have done it. The people have the wrong idea of me, and I would like for them to watch and they will see that I do not kick half so much as they think I do."

JACKSON, 17; NEW CASTLE 13.

JACKSON, Mich., June 11.—No such batting as today was ever seen on the grounds. Besides the thirty-five hits there were nineteen chances in the outfield. Jackson had three double plays. Score:

New Castle	4	0	0 0 4 2 0 3 0-13	15	6

TOLEDO, 2; YOUNGSTOWN, 0.

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 11.—The fastest game of the season and one of the liveliest of the year was played this afternoon, and Youngstown was shut out. Score:

SAGINAW, 5; WHEELING, 2

SAGINAW, Mich., June 11.—Saginaw took a well played game from Wheeling at Union park this afternoon. The score:

	R	H	E.
Saginaw	1	1 2 0 0 1 0 0 0-	5	10	2
Wheeling	0	0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1-	2	8	5

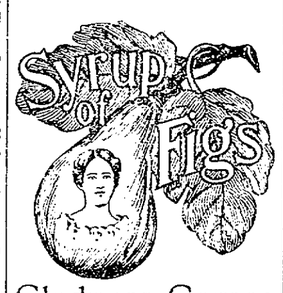
NOTES OF THE GAME.

The Colts went to Defiance today to play an exhibition game. They were determined to win today and get revenge for the game they lost at Defiance some time ago. Captain Tebeau will pitch for the Colts. He can do it.

Criger caught his old-time game yesterday and his throwing to bases was a revelation to the Millionaires.

Tebeau made two three-base hits and a home run yesterday.

Carrick was called home yesterday by the serious illness of his mother, who is said to be lying at the point of death. This leaves the team with only two pitchers, but Manager Meyer has sent for Powell, the crack pitcher of the Chicago Maroons, who will arrive today and be given a trial. Powell is a good man and a good hitter.



Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

MUST PAY FOR ROADS.

Gravel Road Law Taxing Cities Held Valid.

The supreme court, Tuesday, rendered a decision upholding the law which permits the taxation of city property for the maintenance of gravel roads. This law has caused a vast amount of complaint in the cities and towns throughout the state where property has been taken to keep up country roads. The case decided Tuesday was one appealed to the supreme court by N. S. Byram, of Indianapolis. Mr. Byram had petitioned the county commissioners to refund the proportion of his taxes that had gone into the gravel road funds. The county commissioners refused and Mr. Byram brought suit in the circuit court to recover the amount. The circuit court sustained the law and found for the defendants, and Mr. Byram appealed to the supreme court, which sustained the lower court.

CLASS OF '96.

that our work has been successful and that under the careful guidance of our teachers we have well begun our education. We have learned the truth of the well known saying of Confucius that "Learning undigested by thought is labor lost; thought unassisted by learning is perilous." A young man may spend years in a medical college and be able to name the symptoms of every disease known to medicine, yet be unfit to take charge of a simple case of measles. At the end of school life he has failed to acquire the habit of thinking. Let us hope that the class of '96, which has started out so well, will not lose their thinking ability. Mr. Banks paid a high compliment to the teachers, the superintendent and the members of the school board.

Mr. O. P. Morgan, whose term of office as school trustee expired last night, delivered a short address reviewing the history of the public schools of Fort Wayne since their foundation. Among other things, Mr. Morgan said:

In 1853, when our city numbered about 5,000 inhabitants, the public schools were opened in two small frame buildings, one on the corner of Wayne and Griffith streets, taught by Mr. and Mrs. Hulbert, and the other on Lafayette street, between Berry and Wayne streets, known as the McJunkin school house, and taught by Mr. Isaac Mahurin and his sister.

The first school house erected was the one known as the Clay school building (which was burned some two or three years ago), and the second, the Jefferson building. Other school houses have been erected as necessity has demanded, until now we have between 5,000 and 6,000 pupils and 131 teachers.

In 1865 the first class was graduated, consisting of four young ladies, two of whom are now teaching in the city. Your honored superintendent and myself were members of the school board at that time and our names have been attached to every diploma issued by the board since then except two years, when I occupied a position as city councilman.

From 1865 to and including the present year there have been graduated from the high school 385 young women and 132 young men; seventeen of whom took the post graduate course, seventy the full classical, including Greek, 216 the Latin and 213 the scientific course. In addition to these 174 young women graduated from the training school.

The management of the funds belonging to the schools, I believe has been commendably judicious. We have fourteen buildings, which, with the grounds and furniture, are estimated to be worth $350,000, and not a dollar of debt; and have in course of construction the beautiful Lakeside school house to cost, when completed and furnished, $20,000, and a very handsome four room building to be built this fall in South Wayne to cost about $14,000 when completed and furnished. The money is on hand to pay every dollar.

After Mr. Morgan presented the diplomas to the class Rev. Leeper pronounced the benediction, the audience sang the doxology and the exercises were finished.

Following the commencement a reception and banquet was held at the Wayne club.

DEATH OF AN ENGINEER

Nathaniel L. Chapman Suddenly Stricken Down.

Civil Engineer Lincoln Resigns—F. J. Boerger's Funeral—Pennsylvania Official on a Tour.

A telegram from Gurdon, Ark., received by Robert Gage at 4 o'clock yesterday, conveyed the startling information that Nathaniel L. Chapman had died in that city. The news was all the more shocking from the fact that the wife of the deceased had the day previous received a letter from Mr. Chapman, which was written last Sunday and which stated that he was enjoying good health. A second telegram, received this morning, stated that the remains would be shipped to Fort Wayne, over the Wabash road, and would arrive here at 4:48 o'clock tomorrow morning. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the family residence, No. 10 Pritchard street, Dr Henry W. Bennett officiating, and will be under the auspices of Wayne lodge, No. 25 F. and A. M., of which the deceased was an honored member.

The deceased was about sixty seven years old He leaves a wife, a daughter, Mrs Eliza Sanborn, an adopted son, Joseph D. Gage, and one sister, Mrs. Sanborn.

Mr. Chapman was a locomotive engineer, his early railway service being on the Pittsburg Fort Wayne and Chicago road. In 1869 he left that company to take charge of one of the construction engines on the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville, now the Lake Erie and Western. After the road was completed, Mr. Chapman took a passenger run on it and shortly afterwards was changed to a passenger conductor, a position he held until about twelve years ago. Then he resigned and went to Hawarden, Iowa, to take charge of the round house for the Chicago and Northwestern. Three years later he resigned that position and returned to Fort Wayne to engage in the broom business with Robert Gage, who is his brother-in-law. He remained here three years and then went to Gordon, Ark., to run an engine on a log road owned by the Gordon Lumber company, a position he held when stricken down by disease. Mr. Chapman was an excellent man and was held in the highest esteem by our citizens. The news of his death will be a severe shock to all who knew him.

FLORENZ BOERGER'S FUNERAL.

The Pittsburg boiler shop will close tomorrow afternoon and the employes will turn out in a body at the funeral of their late comrade, Florenz J. Boerger, which will be held at the late residence of the deceased, 183 East Washington street, at 1:30 o'clock. The pall bearers, who were selected from the ranks of the shopmen, are: G. Trarbach, J. Manok, F. Minnich, R. Trebra, F. Vechon and J. Handenschild.

ENGINEER LINCOLN RESIGNS

W. S. Lincoln, chief of the Wabash engineering corps, has resigned. A number of changes are being made in the engineer's department of the road in the way of economical measures, and a reduction of the force was found necessary. Mr. Lincoln is a citizen of Logansport. He has been connected with the Wabash engineer corps for twenty five years and has always been an efficient and obliging officer.

PENNSYLVANIA MOTIVE POWER

The executive committee of the motive power department of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg is making a trip over the different divisions in both systems. The committee is discussing many motive power questions, among them the test required of firemen when they are employed, and what examination shall be made when they are promoted to be engineers. The consumption of coal will also be discussed, and many other economic measures taken up.

SOLD A BIG ENGINE.

This morning the Bass Foundry and Machine works received an order from the Stanford Gas and Electric Light company, of Stanford, Conn., for a 500 horse power engine, to be built and delivered as soon as possible The engine is to be of the cross compound Corliss pattern, with cylinders 19 and 36 by 48 inches. The order also includes some line shafting, pulleys and other machinery for an electric light plant. The Bass works yesterday shipped a large boiler to Long Island City, the first of a lot of five which are being built for parties living in that place.

MOVED A DEPOT BUILDING THREE MILES

William Martin, the house mover has completed the task of removing the station building of the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western at Townley and placing it on the site of the old station at Baldwin, which structure was consumed by fire on the evening of May 17. The distance between Baldwin and Townley is three miles. The building was raised and placed on two flat cars and then pulled to its destination. The sight of a house on wheels was a novel one and all along the line hundreds of farmers were stationed to witness the scene. The house had to be turned around at Baldwin, but it was successfully accomplished.

Switch engine 136 has been repaired and turned out of the Pittsburg shops It belongs to the Chicago yards.

Those employes of the electric works who reside south of the Pittsburg railroad and those residing north of that line will play ball Saturday afternoon to settle a much disputed question. The game will take place on the grounds back of the works and will attract considerable attention.

The James Nolan who was arrested for disorderly conduct was not the James Nolan in the Wabash freight house The latter gentleman is an honest, sober citizen and will never be arrested for any such offense as that charged against the man, who no doubt gave a fictitious name to the station officers.

Changes in the assignment of Nickel Plate engine crews have been made as follows: Engineer D. G. Obey to No. 10, Engineer M. T. Ocker to No. 11, Engineer D. T. Grubb to yard engine 62 Fireman J. M. Riggs to No 37, and Fireman John Steele to passenger engine 152, vice Mr. Shoaff, who is ill with inflammation of the bowels.

The Chicago, Milwaukee and St Paul is negotiating for a direct connection between western Wisconsin, northern Michigan, Milwaukee and Chicago, and with that end in view proposes to use the Wisconsin Central track between Oshkosh and Menasha, the Wisconsin Central in turn to use the St. Paul track between Hilbert Junction and Menasha.

Clerk C L Daseler, of the Pittsburg, is in receipt of a letter from Fountain N. Holmes, who is now superintendent of the Suwanee Ice works, at Cedar Keys, Fla. The letter states the writer is prospering and likes his new home very much. Mr. Holmes is a machinist and for several years he was employed in the Pittsburg shops, resigning there three years ago to take a position in the Erie shops at Hunting ton.

The train which carried the Washington newspaper men to St. Louis on Tuesday over the Pennsylvania and Vandalia lines was one of the most completely equipped which ever came west It consisted of seven Pullman cars, including a dining car, a car with a library, barber shop and many other conveniences for traveling. The party was accompanied by George Boyd, assistant general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania. At the close of the republican convention the train will return with the party, going to Cape May to remain eight days, and then returning west to the national democratic convention.

The ticket scalpers admit that since the new mileage rules went into effect on the roads in the Western Passenger association their stocks are becoming depleted and some are likely to go to the wall. The new punch descriptive books cannot be successfully used by the scalpers, and the old forms of coupon round trip tickets and circuitous route tickets are nearly all off the market. The thirty-two roads in the association agreed with the brokers to redeem all mileage presented before June 15, and the books have been coming in on the general passenger agents in large numbers. The passenger agents say that since scalpers came into existence the market has not been so free from scalpable tickets.

She Cheered the Crew.

Not many girls of 18 would show themselves so brave as Margaret Neilsen of Norway, daughter of a sea captain. She recently sailed in her father's vessel, bound from Wales to Nova Scotia, and it was due to her courage that the whole crew was not drowned. Margaret had made several voyages with her father and he readily assented to her accompanying him on this one. With her pets, a water spaniel, a big black cat and a half dozen rabbits, she began the voyage. The ship was 27 years old but considered trustworthy, but a fierce gale sprung up soon after starting and the ship sprung a leak. All who could be spared from the management of the ship were put at the pumps and Margaret herself took a hand at the windmill pump and with encouraging words urged on the sailors at the other pumps. Huge waves constantly broke over the vessel and in spite of their gallant efforts gradually became filled with water. During all the trying hours Margaret sang cheerily. The old Norse sagas recounting the bravery of the sons of Norway rang out and the hearts of the discouraged sailors grew stouter. Finally the water was within three feet of the hold and sinking was inevitable. The captain, exhausted, had retired for a little sleep before the taking to the boats and despair reigned on deck. At this juncture Margaret declared she sighted a sail and this proved true. Signals of distress were run up and after hours of waiting a New York bound brig came and took them off the vessel, which soon sunk. On landing the captain plainly showed signs of the strain he had been through, but his daughter was as bright and calm as ever. She disclaims any heroism, but her father says it was her spirit which kept up the sailors.

News has been received in this city of the death at Wolcottville of Mrs. Adda F. Dallas, wife of Mr. J. A Dallas, who last summer and winter owned the drug store at the corner of Broadway and Washington streets, now operated by the Schroeder Bros. After leaving this city Mr. Dallas went to Wolcottville, where he has been in the drug business. His wife was taken sick at that place and died within a week afterward. Mrs. Dallas made a number of friends during her brief stay in this city and they will be pained to hear of her death.

that when you are suffering from catarrh, you want relief right away. What is the use then of experimenting with blood "cures" upon a disorder resulting from climatic changes? Use a local remedy, for a local disease. Use Ely's Cream Balm, which relieves at once the attacks of catarrh and cures chronic cases. 50 cents at all druggists. This remedy can be safely used by all without injurious results. It contains no mercury or injurious drug of any kind.

Literary Notes From the Century Company.

Mr. W. Nephew King will contribute a paper to the July Century entitled "Glimpses of Venezuela and Guiana," setting forth the life of the natives and the various aspects of nature in the disputed territory. Mr. King says there is gold in paying quantities in the country known to belong to England, but that no one can tell whether there is any in the land that Venezuela claims.

A GOOD PRACTICE.

If You Want a Good Appetite and Perfect Digestion.

After each meal dissolve one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in the mouth and, mingling with the food, they constitute a perfect digestive, absolutely safe for the most sensitive stomach.

They digest the food before it has time to ferment, thus preventing the formation of gas and keeping the blood pure and free from the poisonous products of fermented, half-digested food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets make the complexion clear by keeping the blood pure

They increase flesh by digesting flesh-forming foods.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the only remedy destined especially for the cure of stomach troubles and nothing else.

One disease, one remedy, the successful physician of today is the specialist, the successful medicine is the medicine prepared especially for one disease.

A 75 cent package taken at one time would not hurt a man, but would simply be a waste of good material.

Over six thousand men and women in the state of Michigan alone have been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia by the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Sold by all druggists at 50 cents per package.

ATTEMPTED HOLD UP.

Bandits Stop a Train in a Lonely Place.

The Passengers Awakened by the Usual Proceedings and Frighten the Robbers Away.

HUNTINGTON Depot, W. Va., June 12.—Forty miles east of Charleston, at Cottonhill, on the Chesapeake and Ohio road, masked men attempted to hold up the Washington and Cincinnati express train last midnight. They boarded the train at Thurmond and crawled over the tender of the engine into the cab, with revolvers drawn. The engineer stopped the train and he was commanded to cut loose the express car. This was done, but by this time all the passengers were awakened and the lights were extinguished. After ten minutes' work the bandits became frightened and escaped to the mountains.

PUGILISTIC EVENT.

All Eyes Now Turned Towards San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—Since the announcement that Corbett and Sharkey have been matched to fight, that city has been the mecca toward which the eyes of all pugilists are turned. The fistic experts are hastening to San Francisco from all parts of the country in expectation of a revival of the glorious times when there were several prize fights a week here. There is a state law prohibiting prize fights, but a complacent board of supervisors has allowed contests for a limited number of rounds, under the guise of charity entertainments. Numerous fights have been pulled off during the past four months under this arrangement, but now the civic federation has discovered that prize fights are against the law and its members will endeavor to prevent the Sharkey-Corbett affair.

ALEXANDER JOHNSON.

The Terre Haute Gazette Pays Him a Compliment.

In its issue of yesterday the Terre Haute Gazette has the following to say editorially of Mr. Alexander Johnson, of this city:

"The election of Alexander Johnson to the presidency of the National Association of Charities and Corrections by the annual conference that has been in session at Grand Rapids, Mich., for the past week, and which adjourned today, is a high honor and it has been worthily bestowed. Mr. Johnson is now the superintendent of the Indiana Institute for the Feeble Minded at Fort Wayne. It is regarded as one of the model institutions of the kind in the world. Previous to his election to the superintendency of the institute at Fort Wayne and for several years he was secretary of the Indiana Board of State Charities, in which position he was a co worker with the late Oscar B. McCulloch. Mr. Johnson's selection to the presidency of the national association is a compliment worthily bestowed on a man whose identification with all the things the association stands for has been intimate and helpful."

WAR ON SALOONS.

Whisky Sellers at Ellis, Kan., Are Consigned to the Cooler.

TOPEKA, Kan., June 12.—The woman city government at Ellis is at war with illegal liquor venders, and all but two violators have been prosecuted and ingoiuh in jail. At the recent election the women promised, if given control of the city, to drive out gamblers and "jointists." They have made good the pledge. The county attorney is being prosecuted on the charge of accepting money from a jointist.

Trotting Results at Overland.

DENVER, June 12.—Trotting summaries at Overland yesterday:

The Stull & Miller dog and pony show, which is exhibiting on the lot on South Calhoun street, near Hamilton street, is one of the best entertainments of that class that has ever been seen in Fort Wayne. The show is giving the very best of satisfaction to the large crowds which are attending. Each and every act deserves special mention, but it would require too much space. Among them is a grand entry of ten trained ponies, who perform the most wonderful tricks. There is a pony drill and other things. One pony tells his age and answers questions, others do a teeter act, etc. The dogs form a great feature. The children are invited to ride the ponies after each performance. The price of admission is low, being ten and twenty cents.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE

Discussing the Platform and the Contests.

It Must be Definitely Either Gold or Silver. Each to Take the Chances on the Ballot.

ST. LOUIS Mo., June 12.—Today the national committee spent the time in the discussion of the platform and the hearing of contests. Most of the McKinley men were seated.

The concensus of opinion is that the platform must be definitely either for gold or silver, each side to take its chances in the balloting.

This would leave the central states to settle the platform question.

POLES CUT DOWN.

Vigorous Measures Adopted at Logansport

By the City Council to Get Rid of the Jenney Company Opposition.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., June 12.—A force of men under the direction of the electric light committee of the common council was set at work yesterday afternoon tearing down the wires and cutting down the line poles of the Jenny Electric light company, as per a recent order of the council. Since the city has erected and put in operation an electric lighting plant of its own the lines of the Jenny company have been a hinderance, and the competition has caused the city plant to be operated at a very small profit in furnishing private consumers. The Jenny company has operated here since 1888 without a franchise, and it is by the advice of the city attorney that the lines and poles are being torn down.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED

At the Session of the Northern Indiana Editorial Association.

At the last session of the Northern Indiana Editorial association a committee on resolutions, consisting of Editors Kent, Louthain and McDonald, reported the following resolutions, which were adopted:

The members of the Northern Indiana Editorial association desire to make formal expression of their appreciation of all the courtesies and kindnesses shown them during the sessions of the twenty-seventh annual meeting, held at Fort Wayne June 10 and 11, 1896.

We acknowledge that every effort possible has been made by the local members of the association and the citizens of Fort Wayne to make our visit pleasant and agreeable from the time of arrival to the minute of departure.

We express special gratification for the treatment accorded us by the Consolidated Street Railway company in showing to our astonished eyes the countless attractions of Fort Wayne and its surroundings; to Charles D. Tillo and the Chicago Newspaper Union for their novel and interesting methods of entertainment; to Miss Leo Long and the Haydn quartet for sweet and artistic music; to the gentlemen who so acceptably performed their respective parts in the entertainment at the opera house; to the street railway company and the management of the institute for feeble minded the opportunity afforded of visiting and inspecting one of our most worthy charitable institutions and the new and beautiful park; to the band for music.

These are but feeble expressions of our grateful recognition of the efforts put forth to make our stay in Fort Wayne pleasant and profitable.

An elegant lunch was served in the main building at the park by order of the street car company. After which the association adjourned, the members carrying with them to their homes only the most pleasant recollections of the hospitalities rendered them in this city. The question of place and date of the next meeting was left to the executive committee.

It is not out of place here to say that the newspaper men of the city appreciate very highly the generosity and heartiness with which the Chicago Newspaper Union, through their efficient manager, C. D. Tillo, the Fort Wayne club, by the generous offer of the use of their elegant rooms, and last but not least, the Consolidated Street railway, by their manifold courtesies, contributed in such an important degree to the success of this twenty-seventh annual meeting of the Northern Indiana Editorial association.

The following members were elected an executive committee: W. D. Page, F. W. Willis and Ed. Jurnegun.

CLASS OF '96.

Commencement Exercises Held Last Night.

Twenty-nine Graduates Receive Their Diplomas.

Eloquent Address by Rev. Geo. R. Burroughs, President of Wabash College.

One of the largest audiences that ever attended the annual commencement exercises of the Fort Wayne high school was the one which was present at the Masonic Temple last night to witness the graduating of the class of '96. Every seat was taken and every available inch of standing room was occupied. In addition to this hundreds who came late were turned away being unable to gain entrance to the big building.

The class of '96 was composed of the following graduates in the various courses.

CLASSICAL COURSE.

Harvey Shubert Banks, Lillian Marion Hays, Thomas Johnson Dovin, Mary Janet Kern, Claire Pearl Foster, Lucille Ann Porter, Arthur Anthony Greenick, Harry Lingo Stonecifer, Winifred Evelyn Hartman, Rebecca Cornelia Smoyne Lillie Belle Wilding.

LATIN COURSE.

Aurilla Ann Aker, Donald John Hayden, Maude Aline Gaskins, Agnes Emily Lansdowne, Augusta Anna Haberkorn, Georgene Mathey, Emma Mary Haberkorn, Frederick Calvin McCracken.

Scientific Course—Carrie Isabel Akers, Hugh Brenton Hatch, Mabel Althea Hatch, Grace Agnes Hauck, Elizabeth Jane Hebert, Beatrice Koll Ada Mary McCormick, Mary Maud VanTilburg, Albert Lewis Waters, Jennie Gibson Yau.

The graduates were seated on either side of the stage, the center of the stage being vacant. In a long row at the rear of the class were the members of the school board, the superintendent and teachers of the high school, Rev. J. L. Leeper and Rev. George S. Burroughs, president of Wabash college, who was to deliver the address of the evening. Altogether the stage setting was the prettiest and best arranged of any that has ever been made on such an occasion.

The girl graduates, were lovely in white. Each one carried a beautiful bouquet of choice flowers.

The exercises opened with an overture by Reineke's full orchestra. This was followed by prayer by Rev. James L. Leeper, of the Westminster Presbyterian church. The prayer was earnest and eloquent in word and thought.

After another selection by the orchestra Hugh B. Hatch, the salutatorian, delivered his address. On behalf of the class he thanked the large audience for their presence. He said it plainly showed that the people were interested in the class, and they could best show that interest by attending the commencement exercises when the members of the class bid farewell to high school life. This interest was but a continuance of that shown in the past. The interest that has been displayed in the past is the kind that comes through kindness, but the interest that will be shown in the future will be the kind that is given only for value received. Our school life has been pleasant and fruitful, and we, as a class, hope to merit the interest of our friends in the future. As our class motto says: "They are never alone that are accompanied with noble thoughts."

Not only must we think well, but we must do well. We must fit ourselves for the practical side of life as well as for the theoretical. Our school holds a high, exalted position among the schools of the land and fits us for the practical work. Our school education furnishes us with every advantage for doing this. Many men we see wrestling with great questions who have not had the opportunity to acquire the necessary education which would enable them to solve them. It is true that the solution of all the great questions of the day depends on the education which is received in the public schools. Political questions, social questions and mechanical questions are alike in this regard. Schools are but nurseries for nurturing thoughts. But all legal education does not come from the high schools. This is the beginning, but after it has been received we must apply ourselves to the practical use of the education we have acquired. A glance at our great American inventors, Fulton, Morse and Edison, proves this.

Mr. Hatch's oration was received with a hearty round of applause. The orchestra played Waldteufel's waltz Militaer and then Dr. Irwin introduced Rev. Burroughs, who delivered the address of the evening on the subject "Finding One self Through Education."

The question "What For?" is an American question, said Rev. Burroughs. The American always is asking it. And all over the world an American is a Yankee. He wants to know the reason for everything. He wants to find himself through education. And as it is the question of the nineteenth century, so it will be the the question of the twentieth century. Everything must stand its test. The reason for all things must be ascertained and it must come out because the American will force it to show itself. Education also must give an account of herself. There cannot be too strong a distinction between the education of culture and the education of utility. Culture and utility belong together. They should go hand in hand. The education is not all right from the new, but a distinction can be drawn between the true education and the false education. Men must find themselves. They must find their places through educating themselves and then occupy those places. When Socrates, that great Athenian, went into Athens to find men and teach them to find themselves he struck the keynote. I remember one of those schools of finish which flourished with others of the same kind on the Hudson some years ago. It was a place where young ladies were taken in hand by teachers and instructed in how to appear well in society. A beautiful and wealthy girl from New York was sent there. After receiving her instructions examination day came. She failed. Word was at once sent to her million aire father that his daughter had failed. He could not understand it. "Why has she failed?" furiously inquired the millionaire. "Because," replied the teacher, "she lacks capacity." "Capacity," he exclaimed, "Why, buy capacity at any price, and I will draw my check for the amount." Ah, buy capacity! What a fallacious thought! Capacity cannot be purchased. Capacity must not be as a cistern which can be enlarged as it is filled. Rather it must be as the spring from which flow the potencies of natural ability. To comprehend education the scholar must see the inner soul of the learner.

Fundamental in education is nature study. Science is the uncovering of the great facts of life as revealed in the universe. The laws of nature are but methods of life; force and energy are but expressions of will. On every side, in the nature of things, is found intelligent guiding power. Man is developed most truly as he puts himself in harmony with his environment. His culture consists in the adaptation of his experiences to the forces of life round about him. In other words, he finds himself in large degree through finding his relation to his physical environment. The great progress of modern civilization, the marvelous development of our present industries and the possibility of still greater advances on the part of physical science in the decades just before us, rest back upon this great principle. We educate truly when we bring the growing mind into conscious harmony with nature round about.

History discloses the finding of itself on the part of the human race as it comes more and more consciously into possession of its powers in relation to surrounding nature. The study of history is not simply the mastering of facts much less of barren dates. The true and philosophical conception of history is that it consists in a chain of cause and effect, moving on as the race discovers its possibilities and its larger opportunities. The genius of each race, and of each nation, is to be found in its consciousness of its mission to its day and its environment. In other words, man finds himself in the national life, and each individual is to find his place in relation to this national life. The education of today is, therefore, pre eminently emphasizing the development of judgment, reason and powers of self control through such a conception of history study in relation to the development of man in historical circumstances.

Perhaps the crowning feature of an educational system is its mastery of life as it discovers itself in literature. Literature is the mirror of life. The manifold experience of all lands and of all ages has been crystalized, conserved and handed down through letters.

We may say that the best of the human race have found themselves in those high and noble utterances which we characterize collectively as literature. More and more, back of the book we are seeing the man, the man who has preeminently realized self, he who finds in self the mirror of the external world and in his mental possessions a heritage of all the history of the past. Science, history, literature, the study of these, gathered together comprehensively, is the finding of itself on the part of humanity. The true education, through the use of these studies, brings to the birth personal character, develops individual traits and fits for noble personal service, those who receive the blessings of our inestimable public system of education. American citizenship is the heritage of the American school system, and American character is the outcome of the true educational spirit.

The audience fully appreciated the great effort of Rev. Burroughs to set forth the true meaning of education and the applause which followed the closing of his address was appreciative.

The valedictorian was Harvey S. Banks. In well chosen words he pictured the regret of the class at parting from high school life. There is he said always a feeling of sorrow at such a parting, yet it is accompanied by another feeling of joy. The words of those which have become pleasant for years past are to be spoken no longer as school is concerned, yet the members of the class hope that tonight is the beginning of bright careers. And it is with a feeling of joy that we see the large audience before us composed of people who have patiently and anxiously awaited the triumphant moment of our high school life. We realize

The Wells county democrats to the state convention will present the name of ex-Auditor W. H. Ernst as a candidate for auditor of state.

The man on whom this nation great a long, admiring look will turn, is he who truthfully can state "I made that motion to adjourn."

Fort Wayne is proud of her public schools and she is proud of its graduates, many of whom are now prominent in the different callings of life.

Do not talk about taking the veto power away from the president as long as it is as wisely exercised as it is, during periods when such a congress as that which has just adjourned is the source of legislation.

It is quite an honor to Mr. Alexander Johnson, of this city, to receive the presidency of the National Association of Charities, to which office he was elected at the meeting just held at Grand Rapids, Mich.

The Indianapolis News says that the Indiana Germans may redeem the state to sound money. "Even admitting that Indiana is for free silver now," says the News, "it does not at all follow that it will be for free silver when election day rolls around. In that educational work the Germans will bear a large part. They are very much in earnest in their opposition to free silver, and they are mostly men of intelligence and influence."

The failure of General Weyler in Cuba has been more complete than the failure of General Campos, and has been more humiliating to Spain. He has not only failed to put down the insurrection, but he has failed to maintain decent order and discipline among his troops, and he has failed in his efforts to prevent any knowledge of the atrocities committed by them from being known and published to the world. But it is to be presumed that Weyler will be retained, and that he will continue to permit his officers to murder unoffending citizens for showing lack of enthusiasm, so long as no protest comes from the government of the United States.

Columbia City Post: "Mrs. Pat Lawler, of the south side, who has been an invalid for the past four years, was taken to the St. Joseph hospital in Fort Wayne last evening for future care. She was accompanied by her daughter Mary and Miss Mary Kelligan, of Fort Wayne."

THE MILLIONAIRES

Went Down Just Like Poor People.

The Colts Win From Washington by a Score of 17 to 7—Captain Tebeau's Explanation.

	Played.	Won.	Lost.	Per ct.
Fort Wayne	11	9	2	.818
Wheeling	11	7	4	.636
New Castle	11	6	5	.545

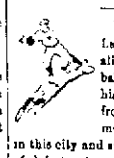
Toledo	11	6	5	.545
Mansfield	11	5	6	.455
Saginaw	11	4	7	.364
Youngstown	11	0	11	.000



Yesterday's game at Lakeside was simply an alleged game of base ball. McKeown and his team of millionaires from Washington, Pa., made their initial bow in this city and swallowed a bitter pill of defeat. A young man named McCleary tried to pitch for the millionaires and he stood the racket for two innings and he was then relieved by another young man named Martin. Neither one could throw a ball hard enough to knock a mosquito off a bat and of course the Colts didn't do a thing to them. Knell pitched for Fort Wayne and of course this meant that Fort Wayne would win.

Mitchell, the big catcher for the Washington team, is the happiest man that ever trod the diamond, and his little sallies of fun were highly enjoyed by the crowd. Mitchell is a good ball player and understands his business. What the Washington's lack is team work.

The score by innings was as follows:

	R.	H.	E.
Washington	0 0 0 0 0 0 1 2 0	3	13 5

Earned runs—Fort Wayne, 4; Washington, 0. Two base hits—Grey, King, 2, O'Meara, Mitchell. Three base hits—Tebeau, 2; Cargo. Passed ball—Mitchell. First base on balls—By Knell, 2; by McCleary, 6; by Martin, 2. Hit by pitcher—Lynch, Rhinehart. Struck out—By Knell, 6; by McCleary, 1. Double plays—Kuhn and Bates; Dougheny, Kuhn and Bates. Umpire—Andrews. Time—2.15.

CAPTAIN TEBEAU'S EXPLANATION.

Last night Captain Tebeau, of the Fort Wayne team, said to a Sentinel reporter: "The people of Fort Wayne do not seem to understand my actions on the ball field. They have received the impression that every time I say a word on the field I am kicking. This is not the case. I never make a kick unless I have a good kick coming. Many a time I go up and say a thing to the umpire or to one of the players or to the pitcher, but I am not kicking. There are times when a pitcher gets rattled, especially young pitchers, and then they go all to pieces. Whenever I see that our pitcher is becoming excited and likely to go to pieces, I always take a little time and go up and say a few words of encouragement to him, or else I talk to the umpire or somebody else in order to give the pitcher a chance to get his nerve and settle down. I never roast a pitcher nor kick to him. I know better than to do this, but I often manage to kill a little time in some way so he can get over his rattles. If I did not do this we would lose two thirds of our games. Our team just now has a winning streak and we want to make the best of it, for we are liable at any time to have our luck changed and lose fifteen out of twenty games. We can't tell when this will happen. Now, my throwing that ball over the fence in the Youngstown game the other day was done simply as a joke. It was done in a spirit of mischief. Hazen had been kidding us and guying us from the bench and I threw the ball over just in order to get him to make a little kick for fun. I had no idea that it would go so far. The umpire had another old ball which I offered to let them use, and it was worse than the one I threw away. I know such a thing is not in base ball, and if I had had any idea that it would have been carried so far I would not have done it. The people have the wrong idea of me, and I would like for them to watch and they will see that I do not kick half so much as they think I do."

JACKSON, 17, NEW CASTLE 13.

Jackson, Mich., June 11.—No such batting as today was ever seen on the grounds. Besides the thirty-five hits there were nineteen chances in the outfield. Jackson had three double plays. Score:

	R.	H.	E.
Jackson	5 2 0 5 2 0 0 2 1	17	20 6
New Castle	4 0 0 0 4 2 0 3 0	13	15 6

Batteries—Engle and Myers; Allen, Daniels and Northwang.

TOLEDO, 2, YOUNGSTOWN, 0.

Toledo, Ohio, June 11.—The fastest game of the season and one of the liveliest of the year was played this afternoon, and Youngstown was shut out. Score:

SAGINAW, 5; WHEELING, 2

Saginaw, Mich., June 11.—Saginaw took a well played game from Wheeling at Union park this afternoon. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Saginaw	1 1 2 0 0 1 0 0 0	5	10 2
Wheeling	0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 1	2	8 5

Batteries—Rutherford and Brown; Baker and Davis.

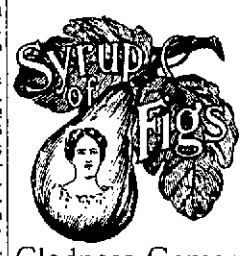
NOTES OF THE GAME.

The Colts went to Defiance today to play an exhibition game. They were determined to win today and get revenge for the game they lost at Defiance some time ago. Captain Tebeau will pitch for the Colts. He can do it.

Criger caught his old-time game yesterday and his throwing to bases was a revelation to the Millionaires.

Tebeau made two three-base hits and a home run yesterday.

Carrick was called home yesterday by the serious illness of his mother, who is said to be lying at the point of death. This leaves the team with only two pitchers, but Manager Meyer has sent for Powell, the crack pitcher of the Chicago Maroons, who will arrive today and be given a trial. Powell is a good man and a good hitter.



Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be conscious of the most skilful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

that our work has been successful and that under the careful guidance of our teachers we have well begun our education. We have learned the truth of the well known saying of Confucius that "Learning undigested by thought is labor lost; thought unassisted by learning is perilous." A young man may spend years in a medical college and be able to name the symptoms of every disease known to medicine, yet be unfit to take charge of a simple case of measles. At the end of school life he has failed to acquire the habit of thinking. Let us hope that the class of '96, which has started out so well, will not lose their thinking ability. Mr. Banks paid a high compliment to the teachers, the superintendent and the members of the school board.

Mr. O. P. Morgan, whose term of office as school trustee expired last night, delivered a short address reviewing the history of the public schools of Fort Wayne since their foundation. Among other things, Mr. Morgan said:

In 1853, when our city numbered about 5,000 inhabitants, the public schools were opened in two small frame buildings, one on the corner of Wayne and Griffith streets, taught by Mr. and Mrs. Hulbert, and the other on Lafayette street, between Berry and Wayne streets, known as the McJunkin school house, and taught by Mr. Isaac Mahurin and his sister.

The first school house erected was the one known as the Clay school building (which was burned some two or three years ago), and the second, the Jefferson building. Other school houses have been erected as necessity has demanded, until now we have between 5,000 and 6,000 pupils and 131 teachers.

In 1865 the first class was graduated, consisting of four young ladies, two of whom are now teaching in the city. Your honored superintendent and myself were members of the school board at that time and our names have been attached to every diploma issued by the board since then except two years, when I occupied a position as city councilman.

From 1865 to and including the present year there have been graduated from the high school 385 young women and 132 young men; seventeen of whom took the post graduate course, seventy the full classical, including Greek, 316 the Latin and 213 the scientific course. In addition to these 171 young women graduated from the training school.

The management of the funds belonging to the schools, I believe has been commendably judicious. We have fourteen buildings, which, with the grounds and furniture, are estimated to be worth $350,000, and not a dollar of debt; and have in course of construction the beautiful Lakeside school house to cost, when completed and furnished, $20,000, and a very handsome four room building to be built this fall in South Wayne to cost about $14,000 when completed and furnished. The money is on hand to pay every dollar.

After Mr. Morgan presented the diplomas to the class Rev. Leeper pronounced the benediction, the audience sang the doxology and the exercises were finished.

Following the commencement a reception and banquet was held at the Wayne club.

DEATH OF AN ENGINEER

Nathaniel L. Chapman Suddenly Stricken Down.

Civil Engineer Lincoln Resigns—F. J. Boerger's Funeral—Pennsylvania Official on a Tour.

A telegram from Gurdon, Ark., received by Robert Gage at 4 o'clock yesterday, conveyed the startling information that Nathaniel L. Chapman had died in that city. The news was all the more shocking from the fact that the wife of the deceased had the day previous received a letter from Mr. Chapman, which was written last Sunday and which stated that he was enjoying good health. A second telegram, received this morning, stated that the remains would be shipped to Fort Wayne, over the Wabash road, and would arrive here at 4.48 o'clock tomorrow morning. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the family residence, No. 10 Pritchard street, Dr. Henry W. Bennett officiating, and will be under the auspices of Wayne lodge, No. 25 F. and A. M., of which the deceased was an honored member.

The deceased was about sixty seven years old. He leaves a wife, a daughter, Mrs Eliza Sanborn, an adopted son, Joseph D. Gage, and one sister, Mrs. Sanborn.

Mr. Chapman was a locomotive engineer, his early railway service being on the Pittsburg Fort Wayne and Chicago road. In 1869 he left that company to take charge of one of the construction engines on the Fort Wayne, Cincinnati and Louisville, now the Lake Erie and Western. After the road was completed, Mr. Chapman took a passenger run on it and shortly afterwards was changed to a passenger conductor, a position he held until about twelve years ago. Then he resigned and went to Hawarden, Iowa, to take charge of the round house for the Chicago and Northwestern. Three years later he resigned that position and returned to Fort Wayne to engage in the broom business with Robert Gage, who is his brother-in-law. He remained here three years and then went to Gordon, Ark., to run an engine on a log road owned by the Gordon Lumber company, a position he held when stricken down by disease. Mr. Chapman was an excellent man and was held in the highest esteem by our citizens. The news of his death will be a severe shock to all who knew him.

FLORENZ BOERGER'S FUNERAL.

The Pittsburg boiler shop will close tomorrow afternoon and the employes will turn out in a body at the funeral of their late comrade, Florenz J. Boerger, which will be held at the late residence of the deceased, 183 East Washington street, at 1:30 o'clock. The pall bearers, who were selected from the ranks of the shopmen, are: G. Frarbach, J. Manck, F. Minnich, R. Trebra, F. Vechon and J. Handenschild.

KAUFFMAN LINCOLN RESIGNS

W. S Lincoln, chief of the Wabash engineering corps, has resigned. A number of changes are being made in the engineer's department of the road in the way of economical measures, and a reduction of the force was found necessary. Mr. Lincoln is a citizen of Logansport. He has been connected with the Wabash engineer corps for twenty five years and has always been an efficient and obliging officer.

PENNSYLVANIA MOTIVE POWER

The executive committee of the motive power department of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburg is making a trip over the different divisions in both systems. The committee is discussing many motive power questions, among them the test required of firemen when they are employed, and what examination shall be made when they are promoted to be engineers. The consumption of coal will also be discussed, and many other economic measures taken up.

BOLD A BIG ENGINE.

This morning the Bass Foundry and Machine works received an order from the Stanford Gas and Electric Light company, of Stanford, Conn., for a 500 horse power engine, to be built and delivered as soon as possible. The engine is to be of the cross compound Corliss pattern, with cylinders 19 and 36 by 48 inches. The order also includes some line shafting, pulleys and other machinery for an electric light plant. The Bass works yesterday shipped a large boiler to Long Island City, the first of a lot of five which are being built for parties living in that place.

MOVED A DEPOT BUILDING THREE MILES.

William Martin, the house mover, has completed the task of removing the station building of the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western at Townley and placing it on the site of the old station at Baldwin, which structure was consumed by fire on the evening of May 17. The distance between Baldwin and Townley is three miles. The building was raised and placed on two flat cars and then pulled to its destination. The sight of a house on wheels was a novel one and all along the line hundreds of farmers were stationed to witness the scene. The house had to be turned around at Baldwin, but it was successfully accomplished.

The James Nolan who was arrested for disorderly conduct was not the James Nolan in the Wabash freight house. The latter gentleman is an honest, sober citizen and will never be arrested for any such offense as that charged against the man, who no doubt gave a fictitious name to the station officers.

Changes in the assignment of Nickel Plate engine crews have been made as follows: Engineer D O Obey to No 10, Engineer M T. Ocker to No 11, Engineer D. T. Grubb to yard engine 62, Fireman J. M. The train which carried the Washington newspaper men to St. Louis on Tuesday over the Pennsylvania and Vandalia lines was one of the most completely equipped which ever came west. It consisted of seven Pullman cars, including a dining car, a car with a library, barber shop and many other conveniences for traveling. The party was accompanied by George Boyd, assistant general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania. At the close of the republican convention the train will return with the party, going to Cape May to remain eight days, and then returning west to the national democratic convention.

The ticket scalpers admit that since the new mileage rules went into effect on the roads in the Western Passenger association their stocks are becoming depleted and some are likely to go to the wall. The new punch descriptive books cannot be successfully used by the scalpers, and the old forms of coupon round trip tickets and circuitous route tickets are nearly all off the market. The thirty-two roads in the association agreed with the brokers to redeem all mileage presented before June 15, and the books have been coming in on the general passenger agents in large numbers. The passenger agents say that since scalpers came into existence the market has not been so free from scalpable tickets.

She Cheered the Crew.

Not many girls of 18 would show themselves so brave as Margaret Neilsen of Norway, daughter of a sea captain. She recently sailed in her father's vessel, bound from Wales to Nova Scotia, and it was due to her courage that the whole crew was not drowned. Margaret had made several voyages with her father and he readily assented to her accompanying him on this one. With her pets, a water spaniel, a big black cat and a half dozen rabbits, she began the voyage. The ship was 27 years old but considered trustworthy, but a fierce gale sprung up soon after starting and the ship sprung a leak. All who could be spared from the management of the ship were put at the pumps and Margaret herself took a hand at the windmill pump and with encouraging words urged on the sailors at the other pumps. Huge waves constantly broke over the vessel and in spite of their gallant efforts gradually became filled with water. During all the trying hours Margaret sang cheerily. The old Norse engia recounting the bravery of the sons of Norway rang out and the hearts of the discouraged sailors grew stouter. Finally the water was within three feet of the hold and sinking was inevitable. The captain, exhausted, had retired for a little sleep before the sinking to the boats and despair reigned on deck. At this juncture Margaret declared she sighted a sail and this proved true. Signals of distress were run up and after hours of waiting a New York pound brig came and took them off the vessel, which soon sank. On landing the captain plainly showed signs of the strain he had been through, but his daughter was as bright and calm as ever. She diseribes any heroism, but her father says it was her spirit which kept up the sailors.

Mrs. Dallas made a number of friends during her brief stay in this city and they will be pained to hear of her death.

that when you are suffering from catarrh, you want relief right away. What is the use then of experimenting with blood "cures" upon a disorder resulting from climatic changes? Use a local remedy, for a local disease. Use Ely's Cream Balm, which relieves at once the attacks of catarrh and cures chronic cases. 50 cents at all druggists. This remedy can be safely used by all without injurious results. It contains no mercury or injurious drug of any kind.

A GOOD PRACTICE.

If You Want a Good Appetite and Perfect Digestion.

After each meal dissolve one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in the mouth and, mingling with the food they constitute a perfect dressing, absolutely safe for the most sensitive stomach.

They digest the food before it has time to ferment, thus preventing the formation of gas and keeping the blood pure and free from the poisonous products of fermented, half digested food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets make the complexion clear by keeping the blood pure.

They increase flesh by digesting flesh forming foods.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the only remedy devised especially for the cure of stomach troubles and nothing else.

One dissolves, one remedy. The successful physician of today, in the specialist, the absorbed medicine is the medicine prepared especially for one disease.

A whole package taken at one time would not hurt you, but would simply be a waste of good material.

Over six thousand men and women in the state of Michigan alone have been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia by the use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Sold by all druggists at 50 cents per package.

Between cheap goods that are not cheap at any price, no matter how low, and good goods sold cheap. We have neither bankrupt stock nor shelf worn goods to sell, but we have brand new goods and sell them for less than others sell cheap goods that are not cheap at any price.

What do you see? A number of MEN'S, BOYS' and CHILDREN'S SUITS with prices marked on them. Are they cheap? You can't tell through the glass. Come in and inspect them. Through the glass a $6.00 suit looks as good as the $12.00 suit. But come in and examine them—compare them with what others are offering, and you will see that we still sell good goods for less than others do.
